FOREWORD

The Kentucky Constitution requires each chamber of the General Assembly to keep a journal as a public accounting of daily legislative activity. The journal is the official record of action.

The Kentucky Revised Statutes require the Legislative Research Commission to compile, edit, correct, and publish the journals of each chamber. This is the Senate Journal for the Regular Session of the 2005 General Assembly.

Texts of bills, joint resolutions, and concurrent resolutions appear in the journal on the day of their first reading. Texts of simple resolutions appear on the day of either their first reading or adoption. Texts of committee amendments appear when they are reported out of committee and floor amendments are inserted at the end of the day on which they were filed. The appendices include a table of actions on bills and resolutions, a list of elected senators, roll call votes, and a sponsor and subject index.

Suzanne Casey and Jeanette Barrett prepared the Senate Journal for the 2005 Regular Session. The edited copy and appendices in this volume reflect the cooperative efforts of the LRC Staff.

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. The following Rules of Procedure are adopted to govern the 2005 Regular Session of the Senate:

Rule 1.Hours of Meeting. The Senate shall meet at the call of the members. The official time shall be governed by the clock over the main entrance to the Senate Chamber.

Rule 2.Quorum. A majority of the Senators elected to the Senate shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at the time fixed for a meeting of the Senate, four Senators may adjourn or recess from day to day or from time to time and eight Senators may order a call of the Senate and send for absent Senators.

Rule 3.Call of the Senate. Upon a call of the Senate, the Clerk shall call the roll, then call the absentees again. The doors of the Senate Chamber shall then be closed and the absentees not excused by the Senate may be sent for and arrested by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Senate shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged from arrest. Senators who voluntarily appear shall be immediately admitted to the floor of the Senate and their names entered upon the Journal as present, unless the Senate otherwise directs.

Rule 5. Unfinished Business. Unfinished business which was being considered upon adjournment shall have precedence in the class of business to which it properly belongs upon the next succeeding legislative day.

MOTIONS

Rule 6. Reading of Motions. When a motion has been made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, or, being in written form, it shall be read by the Clerk before debate, amendment or motion concerning it shall be in order.

Rule 7. Withdrawal of Motions. Every oral motion after it has been stated by the President, and every written motion, bill, resolution or other paper, after it has been read by the Clerk, shall be the property and in the possession of the Senate and shall not be withdrawn without consent of the Senate. Every written motion, report or measure may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the Senate.

Rule 8. Order of Questions. All questions, whether in Committee of the Whole or in the Senate, when not a privileged question, shall be propounded in the order in which they were moved, except that in filling blanks the smallest sum and the most remote date shall be put first.

Rule 9. Precedence of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be in order except:

1. To call the Senate when there is no quorum present.
2. To fix the time to which the Senate shall adjourn.
3. To adjourn.
4. To take recess.
5. To lay on the table.
6. For the previous question.
7. To limit or extend limits of debate.
8. To postpone to a fixed time.
9. To lay on the Clerk's desk.
10. To refer or commit.
11. To amend.
12. To postpone indefinitely.

The above several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and the first seven of them shall not be debatable.

A second motion to adjourn, to take a recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to limit or extend limits of debate, to postpone to a time certain, to lay on the Clerk's desk, to refer or commit or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order on the same day, upon the same question, and at the same status unless other business intervenes; provided, however, that amendments may be made to the time to which it is proposed to adjourn, to take a recess or to postpone to a fixed time.

Rule 10. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn, to take a recess, or a motion to adjourn to a time certain, shall always be in order, except when a Senator is speaking, while a vote is being taken, or when the Committee on Committees is reporting; subject, however, to the limitations set out in Rule 9.

Rule 11. Motion to Table. The adoption of the motion to table, under these rules, defeats the subject matter under consideration. The reconsideration of the motion to table shall require approval of a majority of the members elected.

Rule 12. Previous Question. When the previous question has been ordered, a vote shall be taken immediately upon the pending measure and any pending amendments as are in order. The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to all debate, to prevent the offering of additional amendments and to bring the Senate to an immediate vote upon the measure and amendments aforesaid. The previous question may be ordered by a majority of the Senators elected. On the call of the roll, no Senator shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain a vote and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question. After the previous question has been ordered, and before the vote upon the main question, the opponents of the measure shall have ten minutes, and proponents of the measure shall have ten minutes.

Rule 13. Motion to Set the Limits of Debate. A motion to extend a time limit for debate on a measure beyond that permitted under Rule 12 shall be in order unless the previous question shall have been ordered on the measure. The time limit set for debate under this rule shall be allotted by the President evenly between the opponents of the measure and the proponents of the measure. Adoption of a motion under this rule does not prevent the offering of additional amendments.

Rule 14. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider a vote shall not be in order unless made by a Senator who voted upon the prevailing side of the question; nor shall that motion be in order unless made within two legislative days in which the Senate is in session next after the day the vote was taken; however, the motion to reconsider when coupled with the additional motion to lay that motion upon the table may be made by any Senator. A motion to reconsider a vote on a bill or resolution not in the possession of the Senate shall not be in order.

Rule 15. Motion to Lay on Clerk's Desk. The effect of the adoption of a motion to lay on the Clerk's desk under these rules is to place in charge of the Clerk the pending question and everything adhering to it. A motion laid on the Clerk's desk may be taken from the desk and proceeded with at any time in the same order as when laid on the Clerk's desk.

Rule 16. Motion to Strike Out Enacting Clause. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting words of a bill or resolution shall have precedence over a motion to amend, and, if adopted, shall have the same effect as though the bill or resolution were regularly voted upon and rejected.

Rule 17. Motion to Separate Part of a Measure. A motion to commit, recommit, or postpone a part of a measure so as to separate that part of the measure from the remainder shall not be in order.

Rule 18. Postponement of Measures. When a measure shall have been postponed indefinitely it shall not be in order again during the session.

Rule 19. Reading of Pending Papers. Any pending bill, resolution, motion or report shall be read by the Clerk upon the demand of any Senator, but it shall not again be read on the same day unless so ordered by the Senate.

Rule 20. Nominations. In all elections a previous nomination shall be made.

MEMBERS

Rule 21. Attendance of Members. No Senator shall be absent from a session of the Senate without leave from the Senate.

Rule 22. Decorum of Members. No Senator shall designate another Senator by name.

Rule 23. Call to Order. If any Senator, in speech or otherwise, transgresses the rules of order or decorum, the Senator shall immediately be called to order by the chair and shall be seated. The Clerk shall reduce the objectionable words to writing and read them to the Senate. After hearing a short explanation from the Senator called to order, or upon the withdrawal of the objectionable language, the President may permit the Senator to proceed, or may require the Senator's silence until the matter is disposed of. The ruling of the chair shall be subject to an appeal to the Senate. A Senator offending the Senate shall be liable to censure.

Rule 24. Debate. No Senator may speak more than once to the same subject until all Senators desiring to be heard have spoken, but nothing in this rule shall do away with the previous question if then in effect, nor permit debate on an undebatable motion.

No Senator shall speak more than thirty minutes in the aggregate on any question or measure, at the end of which period, or any portion thereof, the floor shall be returned to the President.

Rule 25. Members Shall Vote at Seats. A Senator shall vote only when at the Senator's seat or visibly approaching it.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Rule 26. President. On the first day of the Regular Session in an odd-numbered year, or at any time there is a vacancy in the office of President, immediately following the adoption of the Rules, the President of the Senate shall take the chair to receive nominations from the floor and to preside over the election of the President. The member who receives the votes of a majority of the members elected shall be the President. If there is more than one nominee, the election of each nominee shall be treated as an alternative proposition, with each name being put to the Senate in the order in which nominated. The first nominee receiving the votes of a majority of those elected to the Senate shall be declared elected. If no member receives the votes of a majority of the members elected, the election is of no effect.

The President shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour fixed for the meeting of the Senate and shall call the Senate to order and direct the Clerk to call the roll, whereupon, if there is a quorum present, the Order of Business shall be followed.

The President shall preserve decorum and order and, in the event of any disorder in the gallery or in the Senate Chamber, may cause the same to be cleared of any persons creating disturbances or disorders.

All writs, warrants, subpoenas or other processes shall be signed by the officer who may be presiding over the Senate when the paper is issued; and the officer's signature shall be attested by the Clerk, when ordered by a majority of the Senators.

The President may designate any Senator to preside in the absence of both the President and President Pro Tem and to perform all duties of the President, including duties as a member of the Committee on Committees. This designation by the President may be made from time to time or for any period of time as the President may designate.

Rule 27. Appeal from Decision of Chair. The President while presiding may speak to points of order in preference to Senators. The President shall decide points of order and manner of procedure. If two or more Senators arise from their respective seats and address the chair, the President shall determine who was first and recognize that Senator.

Any decision made by the President shall be subject to appeal to the Senate. During the pendency of any appeal to the Senate from a decision of the chair, the President shall vacate the chair and call the President Pro Tem to preside. When the President Pro Tem is presiding on an appeal to the Senate from a decision of the President, no motion or business shall be in order except the motion on appeal from the decision of the President, and that motion shall not be debatable. Upon an appeal, the question put to the Senate shall be stated as follows: "Shall the decision of the President stand as the judgment of the Senate? An 'Aye' vote shall support the President's ruling, and a 'Nay' vote shall oppose the President's ruling." The ruling of the President shall be sustained unless a majority of the members elected to the Senate oppose the ruling.

Rule 28. President Pro Tempore. The Senate shall elect a President Pro Tem, who shall perform the duties of the President when the President is absent from the Senate, or when empowered by the President to perform the duties of the chair.

Rule 29. Duties of Clerk. The Clerk shall have charge and supervision of all the clerical business of the Senate. The Clerk shall have charge of the Clerk's section of the Senate Chamber and shall see that no one is permitted therein except the Clerk and those assisting the Clerk.

The Clerk shall read to the Senate papers ordered to be read; call the roll and note and report the absentees when a call of the Senate is ordered; call the roll and note the answers of members when a question is taken by yeas and nays; assist the President in taking the count when any vote of the Senate is taken; notify committees of their appointment and business referred to them; attest all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the Senate; keep a calendar indicating bills entitled to their second reading each day, distinguishing between House and Senate bills; superintend the engrossing and enrolling of bills; certify to the passage of all bills and to the adoption of all joint and concurrent resolutions by the General Assembly; and make all reports to the House, unless otherwise ordered.

Rule 30. Journal of Proceedings. The Clerk shall cause to be kept the Journal of the proceedings of the Senate. The Clerk shall note upon the Journal all questions of order, together with the disposition of same, and the dates upon which all bills and resolutions were sent to committee and returned to the Senate. The Senate may correct errors in the Journal the day the Journal containing errors is presented to the Senate. No record which is in the hands of the Clerk and is required by law to be entered upon the Journal of the Senate shall be copied by any person until same shall have been entered upon the Journal and said Journal shall have been approved. Half an hour before the time fixed for the meeting of the Senate each day, the Clerk or an assistant shall be present at the Clerk's desk with the minutes of the preceding session for the inspection of any member of the Senate.

The Clerk shall transmit the Journal for each day as soon as it has been approved by the Senate to the Legislative Research Commission, which shall deliver it to the public printer. The Commission staff shall proofread and index the Journal upon return from the printer and make necessary typographical corrections.

Rule 31. Custody of Papers. The Clerk shall have custody of all records, papers and bills of the Senate and shall not allow them to be taken out of the Clerk's possession without the leave of the Senate, unless to be delivered to the chairman of a committee to which they have been referred or to the Legislative Research Commission, as specified in these rules, and then the Clerk shall take a proper receipt therefor. The Clerk shall endorse on bills and papers brief notes of proceedings had thereon by the Senate and preserve the same in convenient files for reference. The Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall implement a policy to provide for the maintenance and distribution of the records, papers, and bills of the legislative branch.

Rule 32. Accounts of Expenditures. The Legislative Research Commission shall keep the accounts for pay and mileage of members, officers and attaches, and for printing and other contingent expenses of the House and Senate.

Rule 33. Printing of Senate Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have supervision and charge of all printing done for the Senate as certified by the Clerk, and the public printer shall print only those documents and other matters as the Legislative Research Commission authorizes. The Clerk shall report to the President, to be submitted to the Senate, every failure of the printer to execute work correctly and promptly.

Rule 34. Duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper to exclude or remove all persons not entitled to the floor of the Senate. One hour before convening of the Senate each day the Sergeant-at-Arms shall announce in a loud distinct voice: "All persons not entitled to the floor of the Senate under the rules thereof will now vacate the Senate Chamber." The Sergeant-at-Arms shall then compel all persons who are not entitled to remain therein to leave the Senate Chamber and shall prohibit their entry until thirty minutes after the Senate has adjourned.

The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, before any joint session is to be held, shall request the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House to arrange for the seating of the members of the Senate in a body. The Senators will assemble in the Senate Chamber five minutes before the meeting of any joint session and go to the House in a body.

Rule 35. Appointment and Conduct of Constitutional Employees. The constitutional employees of the Senate shall be appointed by election during the regular sessions of the General Assembly and shall serve one year terms or until the election of their successors.

All the constitutional employees of the Senate shall, one hour before the meeting of the Senate each day, report to the Clerk, who shall report to the Committee on Committees whether all of said employees are on duty. The Committee on Committees, whenever it deems it necessary, shall report to the Senate any dereliction of duty.

Rule 36. Other Employees. All other professional, clerical and other employees required by the Senate or any of its committees shall, as authorized by the Committee on Committees, be provided by the Legislative Research Commission. Employees performing those services shall be under the supervision of the Committee on Committees.

No officer or employee of the Senate shall receive any fee, tip or compensation from any Senator and violation of this rule shall be ground for dismissal.

COMMITTEES

Rule 37. Committee on Committees. There shall be a Committee on Committees composed of the President, the President Pro Tem, the Majority Floor Leader, the Majority Caucus Chairman, the Majority Whip, the Minority Floor Leader, the Minority Caucus Chairman, and the Minority Whip of the Senate.

The majority of this committee shall have full power to act on all matters referred to the committee either by these rules or by action of the Senate. A meeting of the Committee on Committees may be called by the President, the Majority Floor Leader, or a majority of the committee members.

The President shall be Chairman of the Committee on Committees, and in the President's absence, the Majority Floor Leader shall serve as Chairman.

All bills and resolutions bearing the force and effect of law shall, upon their introduction, be automatically referred to the Committee on Committees which shall refer same to the proper committee not later than the third day in which the Senate is in session after the date of introduction.

The Committee on Committees shall have supervision and control over all employees of the Senate whether elected by the Senate or appointed by the Committee on Committees or provided by the Legislative Research Commission, and the Committee on Committees shall see that they perform all of their duties to the Senate and the members thereof. The Committee on Committees is empowered to discharge any or all of said employees and officers except the constitutional officers of the Senate. Rule 39. Appointment of Committees. The Committee on Committees shall appoint the Chairman, Vice Chairman and the members of all standing and special committees and shall fill any vacancies thereon. A member of the Committee on Committees shall not serve as chairman of a standing committee. The Committee on Committees shall select members of committees and standing subcommittees in proportion to the representation of each political party in the Senate. The Vice Chairman shall act in the absence of the Chairman. The Chairman of any committee may appoint subcommittees and the chairmen thereof to conduct hearings or study any matters which have been referred to the committee.

Before the Committee on Committees shall appoint the members of committees and standing subcommittees, the number of members on the committee to be appointed shall be established by the Committee on Committees. At the same time, the Committee on Committees shall establish the number of members of the committee to be appointed from the majority party and the number of members to be appointed from the minority party.

The Committee on Committees shall not appoint more than twelve members to any one standing committee, except the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue, the Committee on Education, and the Committee on Veterans, Military Affairs and Public Protection.

The Rules Committee may refer any bill or resolution before it back to the committee which has reported out the bill or resolution, or to the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue in those instances in which the fiscal implications of the measure may require additional consideration.

No bill or resolution may be considered by the Rules Committee except on call of the Chairman or by a vote of a majority of the members of the committee. No bill or resolution shall be referred back by the Rules Committee on more than one occasion. No bill or resolution may be retained by the Rules Committee for more than five successive legislative days in which the Senate is in session, except those referred to the Rules Committee with associated amendments, reports, or messages pursuant to Senate Rule 59. No measure shall be posted in the Orders of the Day for final passage except by order of the Rules Committee, unless otherwise ordered posted for the next succeeding legislative day by a majority of the Senators voting.

The Rules Committee shall arrange the Orders of the Day so that all measures for the consideration of the Senate shall appear thereon, but the Rules Committee may not place in the Orders of the Day any bill or other measure in the possession of a standing or special committee of the Senate. The Rules Committee shall post a notice in a regular place in the Senate Chamber listing the bills to be considered in the Orders of the Day. Should the Senate not complete a day's Orders of the Day, the bills and resolutions remaining unconsidered shall go to the top of the Orders of the Day on the next day that Orders of the Day are considered.

The President of the Senate shall be the Chairman of the Rules Committee. The Majority Floor Leader of the Senate shall act for the Rules Committee in calling any bills or resolutions from the Orders of the Day and shall be recognized by the President for that purpose during all times that the Rules Committee is in charge of posting the Orders of the Day. The Subcommittee on Transportation shall be authorized to review all expenditures of the Transportation Cabinet and all contracts and memoranda of agreement issued by the Cabinet.

Of the members of each subcommittee, one shall be a member of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue designated by the chairman of that committee. The other subcommittee members shall be appointed by the Committee on Committees. Any member of the Senate may be appointed a member of a subcommittee. If a subcommittee member is not a member of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue, the member shall be deemed a liaison of the standing committee from which the member was appointed.

The liaison subcommittee members of a standing subcommittee shall have full voting authority in all matters before the standing subcommittee.

The chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall appoint co-chairs of each standing subcommittee. A liaison member may be appointed as a co-chair. When a Senate bill has been amended in the House and the Senate refuses to concur in that amendment, or when a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House refuses to concur in that amendment, and when neither will recede from such action, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a Committee on Conference, of three members, to meet a like Committee from the House. The Committee on Conference shall confer with the House Committee and report back to the Senate within a reasonable time, in the same manner as reports are made for Senate bills. The conference report shall make no recommendation other than agreement upon or rejection of the matter or matters in controversy and shall be voted upon, and, if adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage. Second and subsequent conference committees may be appointed.

Should a Committee on Conference report its inability to submit a report, or if either house refuses to adopt its report, each house may appoint a Committee on Free Conference, consisting of three or more members. The Senate Committee on Free Conference shall meet with a like committee from the House, and may propose any amendment to the bill at issue, except the report of a Committee on Free Conference shall not be in order if it proposes to make a part of the measure at issue the substantial insertion of the text of any other bill which has not passed both the House and the Senate, or if it proposes the enactment of subject matter not previously considered at the session. The President, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the report of the Committee on Free Conference, subject to appeal to the Senate. The free conference report shall be voted upon; if adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage, provided, however, that if a motion to reconsider coupled with a motion to lay on the table has been adopted by the Senate, the vote of a constitutional majority of the Senate shall be required to adopt the report of the free conference. Second and subsequent free conference committees may be appointed.

Except for report of disagreement, the consideration of the report of a Committee on Conference or a Committee on Free Conference, and final passage of the bill to which the report is attached shall not be in order on the same legislative day as the bill and report are received by the Senate.

Rule 44A. Majority and Minority Caucuses. The Majority Caucus of the Senate shall consist of all Senate members of majority party affiliation. The Minority Caucus of the Senate shall consist of all Senate members of minority party affiliation. The majority and minority caucuses of the Senate shall be committees, other than standing committees, of the Senate and General Assembly.

Rule 44B. Open Meetings of Committees. The meetings of the committees of the Senate, other than the majority and minority caucuses, shall be open to the public.

Rule 45. Meetings of Committees. No committee except the Committee on Committees, the Committee on Enrollment, and a Committee on Conference between the House and Senate shall sit while the Senate is in session, unless by consent of the Senate. The Committee on Committees and Committee on Enrollment may report at any time except during a roll call or while a vote is being taken.

The Committee on Committees, in conference with committee chairmen, shall schedule a definite time and place for the meetings of each committee, and that schedule shall be posted in the Senate Chamber and published in the Legislative Record. A committee shall meet at the scheduled time and place, so long as business is pending before the committee. A committee chairman may recess a committee meeting on the chairman's own motion for a definite period of time, not to exceed fifteen minutes.

The Chairman shall keep a record of the attendance of members at meetings, which record shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Director of the Legislative Research Commission, under the direction of the Committee on Committees, shall assign a secretary to each committee and provide any professional, clerical or other employees required by any committee.

Rule 46. Committee Reports. Every Committee should report the disposition of every bill and resolution referred to it as promptly as possible. A standing committee may report a bill or resolution in the following manner:

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass," or,

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee amendment attached thereto," or,

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee substitute attached thereto," or,

"Without expression of opinion."

Rule 47. Majority and Minority Reports. It shall require a majority of the committee membership to report a bill or resolution. The chairman shall keep a record of the vote of each member on the disposition of each bill which shall be filed with the Clerk. The chairman may sign reports on behalf of a majority of the committee members. The chairman's signature shall attest to the action of a majority, but shall not be construed as the chairman's personal approval or disapproval of the bill.

A committee report may be accompanied by a minority report, signed by those members who have dissented from the committee's report; it shall be in order to move the adoption of the minority report as a substitute for the committee's report when the committee offers its report. It shall require a majority of the members elected to adopt the minority report. The committee's report shall always be read before the minority report is read.

Rule 48. Failure to Report. Whenever a committee fails or refuses to report a bill submitted to it, any member may, upon filing with the Clerk a written petition to determine if the committee has held the bill for an unreasonable time, call the petition for consideration on the next succeeding legislative day after its filing. If a majority of the members elected to the Senate concur that the bill has been held an unreasonable time by voting to approve the petition, the bill shall be considered as though it had been regularly reported and shall be given its first reading and thereafter treated as any other bill which had been reported from a committee.

Rule 49. Procedure in Committee. The rules of procedure in the Senate shall be observed in committee insofar as the same are applicable.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 50. Form of Bills. All bills introduced shall be printed on the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission, and none otherwise prepared shall be accepted for introduction. Bills shall be offered as one original and four distinctly legible copies. Identical bills for introduction in the other chamber may be exact reproductions of the original bill, provided one copy is authenticated by the Director of the Legislative Research Commission as the original to be introduced in the other chamber. The original shall be the official bill, and shall be retained by the Clerk for the use of the Senate until engrossed and sent to the House. A replacement original of a bill, generated pursuant to these Rules, shall thereafter be considered the original and official bill. One copy shall be used for committees. Two copies shall be for the use of the media and shall be given to a person designated by the media. One copy shall be provided to the Legislative Research Commission. All copies shall be backed with a protective cover as provided for this purpose by the Legislative Research Commission. The title of the bill, or a portion thereof, and the signature of the Senator introducing the bill shall be placed on each cover.

In all bills, as introduced and as printed, which seek to amend existing sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, any new matter contained therein shall be underscored; when an amendment proposes the elimination of matter in an existing law, the elimination shall be indicated on the bill by placing the material proposed to be eliminated in brackets, and by striking through the material with slash marks so as not to render the words illegible. Any section of a bill seeking to repeal a section or sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes shall set forth in addition to the statute section number the statute section headnote as it appears in the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The Clerk shall refer to the Legislative Research Commission any bills offered for introduction not conforming with the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission.

Rule 51. Introduction of Bills. Bills and resolutions may be filed with the Clerk any time the Clerk's office is open. Bills and resolutions that have been filed with the Clerk shall be introduced in the regular Order of Business. The Clerk or an assistant Clerk shall be present at the Clerk's desk in the Senate Chamber one hour prior to the time fixed for convening each day to receive bills and resolutions. Bills and resolutions filed after the Senate has concluded Introduction of New Bills and Resolutions in the Order of Business shall be introduced on the next legislative day. The Clerk shall number bills in the order received, record their introduction, and transmit a copy immediately to the Committee on Committees for reference to committee. In a regular session in an even-numbered year, no bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the 40th legislative day of the session. In a regular session in an odd-numbered year, no bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the 14th legislative day of the session. The two legislative days immediately prior to the last two legislative days shall be reserved by the Senate exclusively for the business of concurring in amended Senate bills. The last two legislative days shall be reserved by the Senate exclusively for the purpose of considering vetoed bills.

Rule 52. Fiscal Statement. A sponsor of a bill which, if enacted, would affect the revenues or expenditures of the Commonwealth generally, may at any time by request cause the staff of the Legislative Research Commission to analyze and prepare a fiscal statement for the measure. The staff of the Legislative Research Commission shall analyze and prepare a fiscal statement for any bill which, if enacted, would fiscally affect local governments in a significant manner through the imposition of a local mandate; constitute a mandated health benefit; change the financial liability of any public retirement system administered by an agency of state government; or fiscally affect state or local corrections services in a significant manner, including any bill which would modify or create a criminal penalty or otherwise affect the population of a correctional system or facility. The chairman or a majority of the committee to which a bill has been referred may require that a fiscal statement be attached to the bill prior to final committee action. No measure for which the preparation of a fiscal statement has been requested or is required pursuant to this rule shall be placed in the Orders of the Day until the fiscal statement is attached. Members may require, by majority vote, that a fiscal statement be prepared for any bill on the Orders of the Day not otherwise requiring preparation of a fiscal statement. In that instance, the fiscal statement shall be attached to the bill prior to final consideration on the floor of the Senate. The requirement for a fiscal statement may be waived by a vote of a majority of the members elected to the Senate.

Rule 53. Fiscal Statements for Amendments. Any member proposing an amendment from the floor which relates to fiscal matters described in Rule 52 shall cause a fiscal statement to be prepared and attached to the amendment. Until the time the fiscal statement is prepared and attached to the amendment, action on the bill to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day.

Rule 54. Reference of Bills. The Committee on Committees shall refer all bills to the proper standing committee not later than the third day in which the Senate is in session after the date of introduction. When a Senate bill has been amended in the House and has been returned to the Senate for concurrence in the amendment, it shall be referred to the Rules Committee, which may refer the bill to a standing committee or post the bill in the Orders of the Day. Bills originating in and passed by the House when reported to the Senate shall be referred to the Committee on Committees and shall take the same course as other bills.

Rule 55. Printing of Bills. Upon receipt of a bill, the Legislative Research Commission shall examine the form of the bill, to ensure that it is free from errors of form or typography and has been assigned the proper KRS section or chapter numbers. If a formal change is necessary, the Commission shall request the sponsor of the bill to sign a form approving the specified changes. If a bill is found to be correct, or corrections have been approved, the Commission shall authorize its printing.

The Legislative Research Commission shall have printed at least two hundred copies of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law introduced in the Senate and of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law acted on by the House and reported to the Senate. Bills shall be printed in the order in which they are introduced and distributed to members immediately upon being printed.

Rule 56. Readings of Bills. If a bill is reported without expression of opinion, a vote may then be taken on whether it shall be read at length and be placed on the Calendar, if a majority of the members elected to the Senate shall concur therein. When reported favorably by the committee, the bill shall then be given its first reading at length and shall be placed by the Clerk upon the Calendar, and shall then be entitled to its second reading the next succeeding legislative day.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different days; but the second and third readings may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the Senate and the bill read by its title.

Rule 57. Calendar; Consent Calendar. (1) In order to reduce the time required for final passage of bills posted in the Orders of the Day, a consent procedure for the consideration of uncontested bills shall be established and designated as follows:

(a) The Clerk shall keep a Regular Calendar and a Consent Calendar for each legislative day, showing the bills receiving their second reading.

(b) The Clerk shall also keep a Regular Orders and a Consent Orders, showing bills posted for final passage by the Rules Committee.

(2) Bills reported by a Standing Committee with a regular "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation shall be shown in the Regular Calendar on the day on which they are entitled to a second reading.

(3) A Standing Committee may, at the time of favorably reporting any Senate or House Bill, recommend that it be placed in the Consent Calendar, provided:

(a) The primary sponsor has so requested, when it is a Senate Bill, and

(b) The bill receives a "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation from the committee by a unanimous vote of the members present.

Any Senate or House Bill thus reported shall be first placed in the Consent Calendar on the day on which it is entitled to a second reading and shall continue to be shown in the Calendar until taken therefrom by the Rules Committee and posted in the Consent Orders. Bills receiving a second reading should be so designated to distinguish them from bills which have already received their second reading.

(4) A certificate shall be attached to each bill recommended for the Consent Calendar, showing the request of the sponsor of any Senate Bill, and the unanimous recommendation of the members present, signed by the Chairman.

(5) After a sufficient number of bills have accumulated in the Consent Calendar, the Rules Committee may post any or all of the bills to the Consent Orders for a day certain. On that day certain the Consent Orders shall be called before the Regular Orders.

(6) Upon the call of the Consent Orders, each bill in those Orders shall be given a third reading by title only. The President shall then allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and any explanation necessary by the sponsor or committee chairman. Consent Order bills may not be amended from the floor.

(7) The Clerk shall attach a roll call to each bill in the Consent Calendar and any member may at any time prior to passage of the Consent Orders record with the Clerk a "nay" or "pass" vote on any bill within the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders.

(8) Upon the call for the question on the Consent Orders, the President shall instruct the Clerk to announce the "nay" and "pass" votes previously filed on each bill in the Consent Orders. All other members present in the chamber on the day and at the time the Consent Orders are called shall be considered as having voted "aye" and the roll call attached to each bill shall so reflect as the final vote.

(9) Upon the written petition of any five members objecting to the placement or retention of any bill in the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders, that bill shall cease to be so considered and shall be placed in the Regular Calendar or Regular Orders, as provided in these rules.

Rule 58. Orders of the Day. When a bill has had its second reading it shall be referred to the Rules Committee to be placed in the Orders of the Day, or be recommitted, and when next reached in the Senate it shall be ready for recommitment, or to be read a third time and placed upon its passage, and the President shall so announce to the Senate.

Except as provided in Rule 41, a bill may be recommitted or amended at any time before its passage. Bills shall be placed in the Orders of the Day and shall be taken therefrom in accordance with Rule 41. When a Senate bill is in the Orders of the Day, it shall be in order on motion of the author to substitute for it an identical House bill which is in the Calendar of the Senate.

No bill shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been previously distributed to the members. No bill, amendment, or committee substitute relating to congressional or legislative redistricting shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been verified by Legislative Research Commission staff using the Commission's redistricting software, as evidenced by the Legislative Record summary notation "PLAN INTEGRITY VERIFIED" and the "Geographic Integrity Verified" notation on amendments.

Rule 59. Concurrence in Amendments and Reports of Conference Committees; Receding from Amendments; Final Passage. When a Senate bill and message have been received from the House requesting concurrence in an amendment or amendments adopted thereby, or when a report of a conference committee or a veto message is received, the bill and message or report so received shall be referred to the Rules Committee for posting to the Orders of the Day or referral of a bill for concurrence to a standing committee as provided in Rule 54. The Clerk shall distribute appropriate copies of the bill and its proposed amendment, report, or message to each member of the appropriate committee. The Rules Committee may post those bills to Orders of the Day for consideration of the amendment, report, or message, and final passage, giving precedence to those over all other matters posted.

When bills with amendments for concurrence or with conference committee reports are reached in Orders of the Day, the President shall first put the question of concurrence in the amendment or report, and if the vote on that question is favorable, the bill shall be put immediately upon its final passage.

Rule 60. Amendments to Bills. All amendments offered by a committee or by an individual Senator shall be typewritten on forms with a proper heading, furnished by the Legislative Research Commission. Each amendment shall bear in addition to the signature of the Senators offering it, an indication of review by the staff of the Legislative Research Commission. All amendments shall refer to the proper page and line of the printed bill. An original and six copies of each amendment shall be filed. The Clerk shall not accept for filing any amendment not conforming with this Rule as to form. Amendments filed with the Clerk shall be introduced in the regular Order of Business. Amendments may be filed with the Clerk any time the Clerk's office is open, and at the Clerk's desk in the Senate Chamber while the Senate is in session. The Clerk shall forward two copies to the Legislative Research Commission. No amendment shall be in order that is not germane to the matter under consideration and that has not been filed prior to adjournment at least one legislative day prior to consideration of the bill or resolution. The President, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the proposed amendment, subject to appeal to the Senate.

No amendment to a bill under consideration shall be in order if it contains the substantial text of the language of any other bill introduced during the session which has not passed the Senate. When an amendment is drafted which contains the substantial text of any bill introduced during the session, the staff of the Legislative Research Commission shall identify the amendment. When a question is raised as to the identity of a proposed amendment containing the substantial text of any other bill introduced during the session which has not passed the Senate, the President shall rule thereon, subject to appeal to the Senate.

If a proposed floor amendment to a branch budget bill will result, if adopted, in a loss of revenues or an increase in expenditures for a budget unit, the amendment shall specify by budget unit the source of funds that will offset the loss of revenues or specify the budget unit or other source of funds that will support the increased expenditures. If a budget unit or other source of funds is specified, the amendment shall include all necessary language to effect the changes.

A committee substitute, upon its adoption, shall be considered as the original bill for purposes relating to the permissible degree of further amendment of the bill. Any proposal to amend the title of a bill shall be by separate title amendment. The question of adoption of an offered title amendment for a bill shall be presented to the body immediately after adoption of the bill.

Rule 61. Engrossment of Bills. Every Senate bill and joint resolution, together with the amendments thereto, which has been passed by the Senate and not subject to further amendment or motion, shall be engrossed by the Clerk. The Clerk shall endorse thereon the day of passage or adoption. The bill shall be delivered to the House in open session by the Clerk or someone designated by the Clerk, and the House concurrence asked therein. A like procedure shall be observed toward House bills.

When engrossing a bill, the Clerk may incorporate amendments by means of typing or by generating a replacement original of the bill through computerized process.

Rule 62. Enrollment of Bills. All Senate bills and resolutions which have passed both the Senate and the House shall be delivered by the Senate Clerk to the Enrolling Clerk, taking a receipt therefor. The Senate Clerk shall keep the number and title of all bills and joint and concurrent resolutions carrying the force and effect of law, passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate, in a suitable record book attesting the fact and date of passage.

If a bill which originates in the Senate is amended by the House and the Senate concurs in the amendments proposed and adopted by the House, the Clerk of the Senate shall engross said amendments in the original copy of the bill by typing or may generate a replacement original copy of the Senate bill through computerized process. The Clerk shall deliver a printed copy of the original bill or replacement therefor, if applicable, to the Legislative Research Commission, taking a receipt therefor. The Commission then shall prepare the amended enrolled copy, and return the copy to the Enrolling Clerk of the Senate.

The original bill or resolution or replacement therefor, if applicable, and the enrolled copy prepared by the Legislative Research Commission shall be delivered to the Committee on Enrollment. The Enrolling Clerk shall certify that each is in the exact form as finally passed prior to delivery. The Committee on Enrollment and the Enrolling Clerk shall jointly compare the original bill with the enrollment copy, and if the enrollment is ascertained to be correctly done, the Committee shall report the same to the Senate. If any bill or resolution is found not correctly enrolled, it shall be returned to the Enrolling Clerk to be properly enrolled and delivered to the Committee on Enrollment as is first provided herein.

Rule 63. Signing of Bills. The Enrolling Clerk of the Senate shall deliver the original and enrolled copies of Senate bills and resolutions signed by the President or the President Pro Tem to the Chairman of the Enrollment Committee of the House for presentation to the Speaker of the House for the Speaker's signature. When signed by the Speaker of the House, the enrolled bill or resolution and the original copy thereof shall be returned by the Enrolling Clerk to the Clerk of the Senate, who shall present the enrolled bill or resolution to the Governor for approval and take the Governor's receipt for same.

Rule 64. Resolutions. Resolutions having the force and effect of law shall be treated and considered as bills in all respects under these rules. A simple or concurrent resolution expressing the will of the Senate shall, upon its introduction, be referred to the Committee on Committees, which may refer it to the floor if it is honorary, benevolent, and does not direct further action; otherwise, it shall be referred to a standing committee. Resolutions referred to a standing committee may be considered for adoption only after receiving a recommendation from a standing committee and being posted for passage by the Rules Committee. All resolutions recommending a study by an interim committee, task force, or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall include the following language: "Provisions of this resolution to the contrary notwithstanding, the Legislative Research Commission shall have the authority to alternatively assign the issues identified herein to an interim joint committee or subcommittee thereof, and to designate a study completion date." All resolutions recommending a study, or which recommend creation of a task force or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall be concurrent or joint resolutions.

Rule 65. Legislative Citations. For the purpose of extending the commendations, condolences or congratulations of the General Assembly to a particular person, or to recognize a particular event or occasion, there may be issued a "Legislative Citation." Citations may not be used for procedural matters, matters of a controversial or partisan political nature, nor in place of resolutions memorializing the U.S. Congress, but only when appropriate to express the feeling of the Senate or of the General Assembly with reference to a person or event.

Each citation shall be prepared in single copy on an artistically designed form, suitable for framing, shall bear the signature of the sponsor and the name of the person or event cited, and upon adoption shall be spread at length upon the Journal. Citations shall be considered in the order of business "Motions, Petitions, and Communications," and without objection shall be adopted upon motion of the sponsor. Citations shall be offered for consideration through presentation to the Clerk.

Rule 67. Pairing. All pairs announced in the Senate shall be entered on the Journal.

Rule 67A. Participation in committee by videoconferencing. A member of the Senate shall be allowed to participate and vote via videoconferencing in all matters before a Senate committee if the following conditions are met:

1. The member is experiencing a short-term physical condition, because of which a physician states the member shall not travel from home or hospital. The member shall file with the Rules Committee the physician's written statement verifying the member's inability to travel; and

2. The member's illness or incapacity does not permit travel for at least one week but not more than four weeks; and

3. The member pays all expenses related to implementing the videoconferencing connection between the committee meeting rooms and the member's remote location; and

4. The Rules Committee approves the member's request for implementation of a videoconferencing connection.

If the Rules Committee approves the member's request to participate via videoconferencing, the Committee on Committees shall arrange for committees to which the member belongs to meet in rooms equipped with videoconferencing capability. If the only meeting room available is scheduled to be occupied by a committee of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Committees shall make a written request to the Clerk of the House, asking that arrangements be made to exchange meeting rooms with the Senate committee which seeks to use the videoconferencing room.

Rule 68. Division of the Senate. If the President is in doubt as to the result of a viva voce, or a division is demanded, the Senate shall divide. Those voting in the affirmative shall first rise and be counted, and the President shall announce the number of those so voting. Those voting in the negative shall then rise and be counted and the President shall announce the number so voting. The President may appoint tellers to count those voting.

Rule 69. Adjournment Extended During Roll Call. When the roll is being called in taking a yea and nay vote, and the hour of adjournment arrives, the same shall stand extended until after the yea and nay vote has been completed and the result announced.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

This rule shall not be construed to prohibit the use of the corridors or passages in going to and from the Senate galleries by any person.

Only authorized persons shall be allowed access to the office areas assigned for use of the members and staff of the Senate. Any person whose confirmation of appointment is under consideration by a standing committee or the Senate sitting as a committee of the whole shall appear for the purpose of offering testimony before the committee at its direction prior to final committee action on the matter, unless the appearance is waived by vote of the committee.

RULES

Rule 74. Mason's Manual. In the absence of a specific rule of the Senate, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure shall govern the proceedings, except that in all cases where general parliamentary law provides for a rule of two thirds, it shall mean in this Senate a majority of all the members elected to the Senate.

Rule 75. Change of Rules. The Rules of the Senate, after their adoption, shall not be altered, changed, amended, suspended or interrupted, unless the same be done by a majority of the members elected to the Senate; notwithstanding any other rule of the Senate to the contrary, a constitutional majority of the Senate may suspend the rules at any time for any purpose. An application contesting the election for the 37th Senatorial District having been filed with the Senate, the Senate does hereby establish the following method for adjudicating this contest:

Selection of the Election Contest Board

On January 4, 2005, the Senate shall select an election contest board consisting of nine (9) of its elected members to consider the depositions properly filed and to make a report for further action by the Senate.

The Clerk of the Senate shall make available at the clerk's desk for inspection by the elected members a vessel, 37 slips of paper numbered 1 - 36 and then 38 printed with the name of the corresponding Member and 37 capsules. The slips shall then be folded by the Clerk and placed into capsules and each capsule shall be then placed into the vessel. At the direction of the President, the Clerk shall intermix the capsules, he shall then select one capsule from the vessel and hand the capsule to the President of the Senate. The name therein shall be read aloud by the President of the Senate and recorded by the Clerk.

If any member selected swears that he cannot, without great personal inconvenience, serve on the board, or feels an under bias for or against either of the parties, that member may ask to be excused from service. If it appears a member selected is related to either party, or is liable to any other proper objection on the score of his partiality, that member shall be excused from service. Any deficiency in the proper number of selected Board members so created, may be supplied by another draw from the vessel or the Board may proceed so long as a minimum of five (5) members have been selected.

Upon the selection of the Election Contest Board, the Committee on Committees shall meet to issue a report naming the Members selected to the Board and to appoint the Chairman of the Election Contest Board from the Members selected. The fact finding process of the Board will be open to the public and may be broadcast and recorded. The Chairman of the Board will rule on all procedural issues coming before the Board. The Board shall meet at the call of the Chairman and a majority of the members selected small constitute a quorum.

The Election Contest Board shall have the ability to send for persons, papers and records, and may issue commissions for taking proof at the discretion of the Chairman. No request for additional evidence or testimony shall be in order until all the depositions properly filed with the Clerk of the Senate have been heard and considered by the Board. The contestant and contestee may have counsel present at any meeting of the Board at which evidence is presented. The Board, after all evidence has been presented, may retire into chambers to deliberate prior to adopting its report.

Adoption of the Report of the Election Contest Board

The Report of the Election Contest Board shall be adopted by a quorum of its members and signed by each member voting for its adoption. The Board's report shall not be final nor conclusive, but shall be reported to the Senate, by the Senate Clerk, for any further action the Senate deems appropriate. SUMMARY

The Elections Contest Board was established on January 4, 2005, to consider the election contest filed on December 7, 2004, by Dana Seum Stephenson. The contest asks that "Virginia Woodward must be rejected and Stephenson seated" in the Kentucky Senate.

Findings of fact included in this determination are based on court rulings, sworn testimony and depositions, argument from counsel and a review of relevant laws.

As specified in the rules governing the Contest Board, this determination was adopted by a quorum of the members of the Board and duly signed by each member voting for its adoption.

The Board's findings include:

Kentucky Senators are sworn to uphold the Kentucky Constitution. It is imperative that each individual Senator, and the Senate as a whole, honor Kentucky law.

The Kentucky Constitution, Section 32, requires that candidates for the Kentucky Senate live in the Commonwealth for the previous six years before the election.

On November 22, 2004, Jefferson Circuit Court Judge Barry Willett ruled the contestant, Stephenson, did not meet the Constitutional residency requirements to hold the office of State Senator. The Board notes that Stephenson testified before Judge Willett that she was a resident of Indiana from 1997 to 2001. Furthermore, she relinquished her Kentucky residency by registering and voting in Indiana in 1998 and 2000.

The Kentucky General Assembly, under KRS Chapter 118, delegated to the courts the power to decide election challenges made before an election. Virginia Woodward filed suit on November 1, challenging Stephenson's qualifications. This is a pre-election challenge. Refusing to recognize it as such by seating Stephenson infringes upon the authority of a co-equal branch of government, undermines the separation of powers and runs the risk of compromising the integrity of the Kentucky State Senate.

Judge Willett's ruling was not appealed and is final. Judge Willett ordered that only votes cast for Woodward could be counted in the November 2 election.

The seating of an unqualified candidate, as determined by the Court, would be an exercise of arbitrary power.

Based upon these findings and others in this determination, the Board finds:

The election contest filed by Stephenson is without merit in that in her Notice, she made no allegations, nor did she offer any proof, relating to the Corrupt Practices Act.

The Senate must accept the December 28, 2004, certification of Woodward by the State Board of Elections as the winner of the 37th District race and seat her in compliance with the final order of the Jefferson Circuit Court.

BACKGROUND

Dana Seum Stephenson was the Republican nominee for the 37th District State Senate seat in the November 2, 2004, general election. Virginia Woodward was the Democratic nominee.

On Monday, November 1, 2004, Woodward filed a pre-election motion to disqualify Stephenson as a candidate for the referenced Senate seat, pursuant to KRS 118.176.

On November 3, 2004, the Jefferson Circuit Court held an evidentiary hearing and permitted the parties to submit post-hearing and reply briefs. At the hearing, Senate President David Williams intervened in his capacity as Senate President and submitted briefs for the court's consideration.

On November 22, 2004, following the hearing and submission of briefs, Jefferson Circuit Court Judge Barry Willett issued a final and appealable order. The Court held that:

The General Assembly has delegated jurisdiction to the courts to decide pre-election challenges to a candidate's qualifications under KRS 118.176.

Woodward timely filed her motion.

Stephenson was not a bona fide candidate for the office of State Senate from the 37th District because she had not met the six-year residency requirement of the Kentucky Constitution.

Several facts were established during the Court action to support its conclusion that Stephenson had instead resided in Indiana from 1997 to May 2001, including:

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 1998 election.

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 2000 primary election and general election.

Stephenson obtained an Indiana driver's license in 1997, listing Jeffersonville, Indiana, as her residence.

Stephenson did not have a Kentucky driver's license from 1997 to October, 2001.

Stephenson's name was purged from the Kentucky voter rolls on February 19, 1998, for failure to vote in the two prior federal elections in Kentucky.

Stephenson did not re-register to vote in Kentucky until 2001, after she had moved from Indiana to Kentucky.

Stephenson and her husband purchased a home located in Jeffersonville, Indiana, to use as their residence until May 2001.

Stephenson moved to Kentucky in May 2001.

Based upon the undisputed evidence and legal findings, the Court granted Woodward's motion and ordered the Jefferson County Board of Elections not to count votes cast for Stephenson. No party appealed the court's decision.

On November 23, 2004, the Jefferson County Board of Elections certified the vote totals for the 37th District and sent the returns to the Secretary of State in accordance with KRS 118.425. Pursuant to the Court's Order, the county board only counted and certified the votes for Woodward (21,750) and did not count or certify any votes for Stephenson.

On December 7, 2004, Stephenson filed a Notice of Application to Contest the Election for the 37th Senatorial District in direct contradiction to the Jefferson Circuit Court's Order.

On December 13, 2004, the State Board of Elections tabled a vote on the certification of the 37th District race.

On December 21, 2004, the Court granted Woodward's motion to order Secretary of State Trey Grayson and the State Board of Elections to meet and certify the election for the 37th District State Senate seat.

On December 27, 2004, Woodward filed with the Senate Clerk a Petition to Dismiss Stephenson's Notice of Application to Contest in the election at issue.

On December 28, 2004, the State Board of Elections met and certified Woodward as winner of the 37th District election. Secretary of State Trey Grayson confirmed the issuance of a certificate of election by the state Board of Elections, certifying Virginia Woodward to the 37th District Senate Seat.

On January 1, 2005, Woodward was sworn in as Senator of the 37th District by the Honorable Judge Stephen P. Ryan of the Jefferson Circuit Court.

On January 4, 2005, the Kentucky General Assembly convened the 2005 Regular Session. Newly elected members of the Senate took the oath of office, including Woodward. In light of the pending challenge to the acceptance of certification for Woodward, Senate Majority Floor Leader Dan Kelly moved that all elected Senators be seated as members of the Senate, except for Woodward. The motion carried by a voice vote over significant objections.

On that same day, a nine-member Election Contest Board was selected at random, pursuant to statute, and subsequently sworn in by President Williams. The random selection process and the requirement for impartiality of Board members, as required under law, are designed to remove individual and partisan motives, to the extent possible in a partisan body, as the board executes its charge to "determine the contest." KRS 120.215. Senator Gerald Neal was selected by the Board to serve as its Chairman. Other members are Senators Brett Guthrie, Ernie Harris, Bob Leeper, Joey Pendleton, Jerry Rhoads, Dorsey Ridley, Ernesto Scorsone and Robert Stivers.

CONTEST BOARD ACTION

After their selection on January 4, 2005, members of the Contest Board met on January 4, 5 and 6, 2005.

FINDINGS OF FACT

After reviewing the record and testimony, the Board makes the following findings of fact:

The Jefferson Circuit Court, in Case No. 04-CI-09261, ruled that:

The General Assembly has delegated jurisdiction to the courts to decide pre-election challenges to a candidate's qualifications under KRS 118.176.

Woodward timely filed her motion.

The Kentucky constitutional residency requirement complies with the federal Constitution.

Stephenson was not a bona fide candidate for the office of State Senate from the 37th District because she has not met the six-year residency requirement of the Kentucky Constitution.

2. The Jefferson Circuit Court ruling was not appealed by any of the parties and is final.

3. The Board confirms the facts established during the Court action, including:

Stephenson testified that she was a resident of Indiana from 1997 to 2001.

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 1998 election.

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 2000 primary election and general election.

Stephenson had obtained an Indiana driver's license in 1997, listing Jeffersonville, Indiana as her residence.

Stephenson did not have a Kentucky driver's license from 1997 to October 2001.

Stephenson's name was purged from the Kentucky voter rolls on February 19, 1998, for failure to vote in the two prior federal elections in Kentucky.

Stephenson did not re-register to vote in Kentucky until 2001, after she had moved from Indiana to Kentucky.

Stephenson and her husband purchased a home located in Jeffersonville, Indiana, to use as their residence until May 2001.

Stephenson was not a resident of Kentucky for the next preceding six years prior to the November 2, 2004, election.

Stephenson filed Indiana state income tax returns for the years 1998, 1999 and 2000.

The Jefferson County Board of elections certified Woodward as the winner of the 37th Senatorial District. It certified 0 votes for Stephenson.

The State Board of Elections certified the 37th District election for Woodward.

Woodward was duly sworn as a Senator in Kentucky for the 37th District on January 1, 2005, by the Hon. Stephen P. Ryan, Judge, Jefferson Circuit Court.

Woodward entered the Senate chamber on January 4, 2004, at the commencement of the 2005 Regular Session, wherein she was administered an additional oath of office, along with the other Senators elected on November 2, 2004.

Stephenson's Notice of Application to Contest raised the same arguments she lost in the unappealed Jefferson Circuit Court action. In her Notice, she made no allegations, nor did she offer any proof, relating to the Corrupt Practices Act.

FINDINGS OF LAW

Delegation by General Assembly to Courts to Decide Pre-election Qualifications of Candidate

The General Assembly, with constitutional power to judge the qualifications of its members, delegated jurisdiction to the judicial branch to resolve pre-election challenges about the qualifications of a candidate by enacting KRS 118.176.

We concur with the Jefferson Circuit Court's decision that it had the authority to determine whether Stephenson was a bona fide candidate and that the challenge was timely filed.

The Jefferson Circuit Court found that Stephenson was not a bona fide candidate for the office of State Senate because she did not meet the six-year residency requirement of the State Constitution and ordered that Woodward be declared the "de facto" winner and be certified. Stephenson did not appeal these findings even though KRS 118.176 provides for an appeal.

The Board is of the opinion that the Senate should honor the findings and order of the Court. Refusing to recognize the ruling as such infringes upon the authority of a co-equal branch of government, undermines the separation of powers and runs the risk of compromising the integrity of the Kentucky State Senate. The seating of an unqualified candidate, as determined by the Court, would be an exercise of arbitrary power.

Stephenson's Residency

The Board finds overwhelming evidence that Stephenson failed to meet the Constitutional residency requirements and was not a bona fide candidate for the Senate and therefore, concurs with the Jefferson Circuit Court's Order.

The Kentucky Constitutional residency requirement states: "No person shall be a Senator who, at the time of his election, is not a citizen of Kentucky, has not attained the age of thirty years, and has not resided in this State six years next preceding his election, and the last year thereof in the district for which he may be chosen." Section 32.

Among the several facts established before this Board are the following:

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 1998 election.

Stephenson voted in the Indiana 2000 primary election and general election.

Stephenson had obtained an Indiana driver's license in 1997, listing Jeffersonville, Indiana as her residence.

Stephenson did not have a Kentucky driver's license from 1997 to October 2001.

Stephenson's name was purged from the Kentucky voter rolls on February 19, 1998, for failure to vote in the two prior federal elections in Kentucky.

Stephenson did not re-register to vote in Kentucky until 2001, after she had moved from Indiana to Kentucky.

Stephenson and her husband purchased a home in late 1996 located in Jeffersonville, Indiana, to use as their residence until May 2001.

Stephenson was not a resident of Kentucky for six years prior to the November 2, 2004, election.

Stephenson filed Indiana state income tax returns for the years 1998, 1999 and 2000.

The Jefferson Circuit Court cited the factors listed above, applying the Kentucky Supreme Court precedent found in Mobley v. Armstrong, Ky., 978 S.W.2d 307 (1998), in finding in favor of Woodward.

Further, the Board concurs with the Court's finding that Stephenson's arguments equating "resident" and "reside" with "legal domicile" unpersuasive in light of Mobley.

The Board also finds KRS 116.035 persuasive in supporting the position that Stephenson clearly forfeited her Kentucky residency when she voted in Indiana between 1998 and

2000. Section (3) states: "A voter shall lose his or her residence by removal to another state or county with intention to make his or her permanent residence there, or by removal to and residence in another state, with intention to reside there an indefinite time, or by voting there, even though he or she may have had the intention to return to this state at some future period."

DETERMINATION

Therefore, pursuant to KRS 120.215, and based upon the foregoing the Board determines:

The Board finds that the election contest filed by Dana Seum Stephenson is without merit. She fails to meet the six-year residency requirement of the Kentucky Constitution.

Virginia Woodward is the duly certified and duly elected winner of the Senate contest in the 37th District and, therefore, the Senate must seat her in compliance with the final order of the Jefferson Circuit Court.

This report constitutes the Board's final determination.

The following members favor adoption of this determination signed January 6, 2005:

/S/ Senator Gerald Neal

/S/ Senator Joey Pendleton

/S/ Senator Ridley

/S/ Senator Scorsone

/S/ Senator Rhoads

Report No. 2 of the Election Contest Board, signed by Senators Guthrie, Harris, and Stivers, was reported as follows:

WHEREAS, a contest of election has been properly filed by Dana Seum Stephenson and accepted for review and final disposition by the Kentucky State Senate concerning the results of an election of a senator to represent the citizens of the 37th State Senatorial District; and

WHEREAS, under authority of Rule 49 of the Kentucky State Senate, the members of this election contest board whose signatures are affixed hereto respectfully file this report for consideration by the full Senate; and

WHEREAS, the jurisdiction of the Kentucky State Senate over the contested election is hereby declared and reaffirmed and it is recognized that Section 38 of the Kentucky Constitution vests power in the General Assembly that each House "shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its members"; and

WHEREAS, delegation of pre-election authority to determine whether a candidate is qualified to have his or her name appear on a ballot is not a preemption or delegation of the ultimate and constitutional authority of the Senate to judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members; particularly in a case such as this where the election has concluded and the choice of the citizens has been expressed;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY REPORTED as follows:

A majority of the voters who cast their ballots in the November 2004 General Election for senator in the 37th State Senatorial District chose Dana Seum Stephenson to represent them in the Kentucky State Senate.

The election began either immediately after the certification of the candidates for the General Election, or at the latest on October 15, 2004 when early voting began pursuant to KRS 117.085(1)(c).

On or about 3:30 p.m. on November 1, 2004, the evening before the regular voting began, a complaint was filed in the Jefferson Circuit Court seeking relief as a pre-election contest.

No hearing was held or relief granted by the Jefferson Circuit Court until after the conclusion of the election wherein a majority of the citizens of the 37th State Senatorial District expressed their choice of Dana Seum Stephenson to represent them in the Kentucky State Senate.

On November 22, 2004 the Jefferson Circuit Court ordered the Jefferson County Board of Elections to not report the votes of the citizens who cast ballots for Dana Seum Stephenson to the Kentucky State Board of Elections based upon the Court's conclusion that Dana Seum Stephenson was not a qualified candidate under Section 32 of the Kentucky Constitution.

Section 32 provides that, " No person shall be a Senator who, at the time of his election, is not a citizen of Kentucky and has not resided in Kentucky six (6) years next preceding his election."

There is no question regarding Dana Seum Stephenson's qualification as a citizen of Kentucky "at the time of the election."

The issue regarding Dana Seum Stephenson is whether she has "resided in Kentucky six years preceding the election."

Since Section 32 uses both the term "citizen of Kentucky" at the time of election and "has resided in Kentucky" when referring to the six (6) years next prior to the election, it must be presumed that each word represents two separate standards.

It is the finding of this report that the term citizenship refers to what is customarily referred to as domicile or legal residence including specifically the jurisdiction in which one is legally eligible to vote.

The term "has resided" is a more subjective standard.

According to Black's Law Dictionary, "residence" is where "one has a residence" and "to reside" is "where one actually lives as an inhabitant in a given place; Black's Law Dictionary further provides a person may have more than one residence.

Therefore the question is whether or not in this case, during the six (6) years immediately prior to the election of November 2, 2004, did the candidate, Dana Seum Stephenson own a residence in Kentucky in which she actually lived.

The evidence before the contest board regarding these are two issues is first, that; in 1995, Dana Seum Stephenson purchased and continually owned a residence at 7628 Manslick Road, Louisville Kentucky, the residence in which she now lives.

Second, that Dana Seum Stephenson actually lived in and inhabited her residence in Kentucky on a regular and continuous basis as follows:

On a typical day for the past ten years Dana Seum Stephenson reported to work as a math teacher at Pleasure Ridge Park High School in Louisville, Jefferson County Kentucky at 7:15 a.m. and taught her regular load of classes, after which she would provide extended school services until 5:00 p.m.

Dana Seum Stephenson would go to her Kentucky residence on Manslick Road and nap until she returned to her coaching duties a Pleasure Ridge Park High School until late in the evening.

On those nights that she remained at school late, she would often spend the night at her Kentucky residence.

On Saturdays, Dana Seum Stephenson would participate in other after school activities including ACT test preparation for Pleasure Ridge Park High School students.

On Sundays, Dana Seum Stephenson attended church in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky.

On vacations and holidays she and her husband and step children would often stay at her Kentucky residence because it had a swimming pool.

This issue arose because during a two and one-half (2½) year period prior to May 2001, Dana Seum Stephenson and her new husband purchased a house in Jeffersonville, Indiana.

When Dana Seum Stephenson was not in her Kentucky residence, and particularly when she attended night school at Indiana University Southeast, working to earn her Rank One Master's Degree as required by Kentucky law, she lived in her Indiana residence.

Much controversy in this case centers around the fact that in the two and one-half (2½) year period prior to May 2001, Dana Seum Stephenson had many of the indications of a legal resident or citizen of Indiana, including licensing her vehicle in Indiana and voting as a citizen of Indiana.

However, as previously stated, under Section 32 Dana Seum Stephenson was only required to be a "citizen of Kentucky" at the time of her election.

The fact that she resided in or was a legal resident of Indiana does not preclude her from being found to have "resided" in Kentucky during the same time she resided in Indiana.

Clearly from the evidence before the board we can conclude that Dana Seum Stephenson was a citizen of Kentucky at the time of her election.

Dana Seum Stephenson was both a citizen and a resident for three and one-half (3½) years prior to her election and during the two and one-half (2½) year period prior to May 2001 when she owned a residence in Indiana she also owned a residence in Kentucky and continuously resided in Kentucky.

Because a Circuit Court has reviewed this same evidence and reached a different conclusion regarding this issue the Senate should carefully consider whether for purposes of comity, in other words, respect for the judiciary, it should defer to the Court and not reach a different conclusion than the Court.

However, there is a more important issue than the issue of comity between two separate branches of government, and that is respect for the choice of the voters of the 37th State Senatorial District.

It is the opinion of those adopting this report that in a case where the voters have clearly exercised their fundamental right to choose their representative in a free and fair election, that the choice by the voters should not be casually set aside without compelling reason.

In this case the practical reality is that Dana Seum Stephenson has more contact and experience with the state of Kentucky, its citizens and laws than most who seek to be a senator.

Dana Seum Stephenson was born in Kentucky and lived in her district, where she obtained her primary and secondary education.

Since receiving her teaching degree from an institution of a neighboring state, she has lived, worked, worshiped and served in Kentucky and her district, including the time in which she owned a residence in Indiana while both pursuing her Master's Degree at Indiana University Southeast and working day and night as a teacher at a public high school within her district.

THEREFORE, it is the opinion of the members of the Election Contest Board who have affixed their signatures to this report that the Senate find that Dana Seum Stephenson, the person chosen by the voters of the 37th State Senatorial District is legally qualified to be seated as a member of the Kentucky State Senate and serve for the term of office to which she has been elected.

The following members of the Election Contest Board, having dissented from the report filed by five (5) members of the Election Contest Board, respectfully submit to the full Senate for its further action and favor adoption of the foregoing findings and conclusions.

Signed, January 6, 2005

/S/ Senator Brett Guthrie

/S/ Senator Ernie Harris

/S/ Senator Robert Stivers

Election Contest Board Report No. 3, signed by Senator Leeper, was reported as follows:

WHEREAS, a contest of election has been properly filed by Dana Seum Stephenson and accepted for review and final disposition by the Kentucky State Senate concerning the results of an election of a senator to represent the citizens of the 37th State Senatorial District; and

WHEREAS, under authority of Rule 49 of the Kentucky State Senate, the members of this election contest board whose signatures are affixed hereto respectfully file this report for consideration by the full Senate; and

WHEREAS, the jurisdiction of the Kentucky State Senate over the contested election is hereby declared and reaffirmed and it is recognized that Section 38 of the Kentucky Constitution vests power in the General Assembly that each House "shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its members"; and

WHEREAS, delegation of pre-election authority to determine whether a candidate is qualified to have his or her name appear on a ballot is not a preemption or delegation of the ultimate and constitutional authority of the Senate to judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members; particularly in a case such as this where the election has concluded and the choice of the citizens has been expressed;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY REPORTED as follows:

1. A General Election was held for the 37th State Senatorial District seat on Nov 2nd, 2004 in which a majority of the voters cast their ballots for Dana Seum Stephenson to represent their district in the Kentucky State Senate.

2. Evidence presented to the aforementioned Election Contest Board has shown that under section 32 of the Kentucky state constitution Dana Seum Stephenson is Constitutionally unqualified to hold the office which she sought.

3. Precedent and good judgement dictates that, in a contested election where one candidate has been declared not qualified, the highest qualified vote-getter is not necessarily automatically awarded the office.

4. In confirmation of point 3, the Senate acted on January 4th, 2005 to deny the office of Senator from the 37th District to Virginia Woodward as reflected in the minutes of the Senate from that day.

5. Therefore, recognizing a vacancy has occurred in the 37th Senatorial district, the President of the Senate shall set a Special Election date as prescribed by KRS 118.730.

The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the general revenue requirements of the county where the facility is located. For purposes of assessing the licensing fee provided for in this section, off-site waste management shall consist of establishing and operating a facility whose principal purpose is treatment, storage, disposal, or a combination of these activities but shall not include those treatment, storage, or disposal activities which occur incidental to or which are not otherwise distinguishable from a broader manufacturing operation at the site of said operation.

(2) (a) The fiscal court of a county or the urban-county council of an urban-county government may license a solid waste landfill located within the county or urban-county area. The license fee may be set at not less than one cent ($0.01) but no more than fifty cents ($0.50) per ton of waste received by the landfill or set at up to five percent (5%) of gross receipts of the landfill.

(b) The license fee as set may be increased by an amount up to one-quarter (1/4) of the base fee per ton or on gross receipts of waste received at the landfill which originates from outside of the planning area. For purposes of this section, planning area shall mean those areas within Kentucky as indicated in solid waste management plans filed with the cabinet by a county, multicounty area, or waste management district. However, before a fee differential may be imposed the county or urban-county government shall demonstrate that the differential is reasonably related to additional government services which must be undertaken because of the landfilling of nonplanning area waste.

This demonstration may be made by showing an unplanned for reduction in waste disposal capacity and a need to provide for future disposal capacity or impacts on roads, litter control or emergency services.

(c) The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the government services provided to the landfill, necessary clean-up operations or emergency responses related to operation of the landfill or transporting waste to the landfill, necessary maintenance, improvement or construction of roads, and for the general revenue requirements of the county or urban-county government where the landfill is located.

(d) ~~[Five percent (5%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually to the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet until July 30, 1990. The cabinet shall use the amount received for state solid waste management activities.]~~Ten percent (10%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually in equal shares to all counties and urban-county governments in the planning area served by the landfill from where the fees originated which shall be used for local solid waste planning and plan implementation. Counties or urban-county governments desiring to impose the fee provided for herein are authorized to accept payments in lieu of the fee under duly-executed contracts between the county and the permitted site or facility. The fee provided for in this subsection shall be in lieu of the provisions of subsection (1). Special waste, as defined in KRS 224.50-760, except for waste from sanitary wastewater treatment facilities, shall be exempt from this subsection.

(a) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to administer the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts of the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. In adopting administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks. The division[~~office~~] may establish a range of amounts to be paid from the fund, or may base payments on methods such as pay for performance, task order, or firm fixed pricing, which are designed to provide incentives for contractors to more tightly control corrective action costs, and shall establish criteria to be met by persons who contract to perform corrective action to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. The criteria may include the certification of individuals, partnerships, and companies. Criteria shall be established to certify laboratories that contract to perform analytical testing related to the underground storage tank program. Owners and operators shall have all required analytical testing performed by a certified laboratory to be eligible for fund participation. Persons who contract with petroleum storage tank owners or operators shall not be paid more than the amount authorized by the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund for the performance of corrective action. At a minimum, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations that will insure an unobligated balance in the fund adequate to meet financial assurance requirements and corrective action requirements of KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4). If the unobligated balance in the fund is not adequate to meet the requirements of this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] shall obligate funds necessary to meet these requirements;

(b) Establish by administrative regulation the criteria to be met to be eligible to participate in the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts and to receive reimbursement from these accounts. Owners or operators seeking coverage under the petroleum storage tank account shall file for eligibility and for financial assistance with the division[~~office~~] on or before January 15, 2008. To insure cost effectiveness, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations specifying the circumstances under which prior approval of corrective action costs shall be required for those costs to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks and the degree of compliance of the facility with any administrative regulations of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 or applicable federal regulations;

(c) Establish a financial responsibility account within the fund which may be used by petroleum storage tank owners and operators to demonstrate financial responsibility as required by administrative regulations of the cabinet or the federal regulations applicable to petroleum storage tanks, consistent with the intent of the General Assembly as set forth in KRS 224.60-120(5). The account shall receive four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. To be eligible to use this account to demonstrate compliance with financial responsibility requirements of the cabinet or federal regulations, or to receive reimbursement from this account for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage, the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall meet the eligibility requirements established by administrative regulation promulgated by the division[~~office~~];

(d) Establish a small operator assistance account within the fund which may be used by the division[~~office~~] to make or participate in the making of loans, to purchase or participate in the purchase of the loans, which purchase may be from eligible lenders, or to insure loans made by eligible lenders;

(e) Establish a petroleum storage tank account within the fund to be used to pay the costs of corrective action due to a release from a petroleum storage tank not eligible for reimbursement from the financial responsibility account. Reimbursements of corrective action projects performed under the petroleum storage tank account shall be carried out on or before July 15, 2013. Any corrective action costs incurred after this date shall not be eligible for reimbursement under the petroleum storage tank account. The account shall receive one cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. This account shall not be used to compensate third parties for bodily injury and property damage. Within three (3) months after July 15, 2004, the division[~~office~~] shall develop a plan to address the payment of claims and completion of corrective action at facilities eligible for reimbursement from this account. The division[~~office~~] shall establish a ranking system to be used for the distribution of amounts from this account for the purpose of corrective action. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] shall consider the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator to perform corrective action and the extent of damage caused by a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;

(f) Hear complaints brought before the division[~~office~~] regarding the payment of claims from the fund in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B;

(g) Establish and maintain necessary offices within this state, appoint employees and agents as necessary, and prescribe their duties and compensation;

(h) Employ, in accordance with the procedures found in KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725 for awarding personal service contracts, a qualified actuary to perform actuarial studies, as directed by the division[~~office~~], for determining an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account sufficient to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities and to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account. The division[~~office~~] shall, by administrative regulation, set the entry level for participation in the fund;

(i) Authorize expenditures from the fund to carry out the purpose of KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160, including reasonable costs of administering the fund, the procurement of legal services, and the procurement of analytical testing services when necessary to confirm the accuracy of analytical testing results obtained by a petroleum storage tank owner or operator. The expenditures shall be paid from the appropriate account;

(j) Establish a small operators' tank removal account within the fund to reimburse the reasonable cost of tank system removal for small owners and operators. The account shall not be used when an owner or operator is removing the tank with the intention of replacing or upgrading the tank. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish among owners and operators based on income, number of tanks, number of facilities, and types and classes of tanks;

(k) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to perform financial audits of any petroleum storage tank owner or operator receiving reimbursement from the fund or any entity contracting or subcontracting to provide corrective action services for facilities eligible for fund reimbursement. Financial audits shall be limited to those files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action performed at a facility where the costs of corrective action have been reimbursed by the fund. Files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action reimbursed by the fund shall be subject to a financial audit for a period of three (3) years after the date of final reimbursement from the fund. Results of the audits shall be protected from disclosure as allowed by KRS 61.878(1)(c). Financial auditing services may be contracted for or personnel may be employed as needed to implement the requirements of this paragraph;

(l) Be authorized to enter and inspect any facility intending to seek reimbursement for the cost of corrective action to determine the reasonableness and necessity of the cost of corrective action. The division[~~office~~] may collect soil or water samples or require storage tank owners or operators to split samples with the office for analytical testing. Refusal to allow entry and inspection of a facility or refusal to allow the division[~~office~~] to collect or split samples shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation;

(m) Have inspectors[~~assurance fund auditors~~] on site at all tank system removals. Failure to comply with this provision shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation. A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may request through certified mail that the division[~~office~~] schedule an inspector[~~assurance fund auditor~~] to be present at an upcoming tank removal. If the request is made at least two (2) weeks before the time for the removal and an inspector[~~auditor~~] fails to be present at the time scheduled, the tank removal may proceed without making the facility ineligible for fund participation unless the owner is notified by the division[~~assurance fund~~] no later than ten (10) days prior to the proposed date that an inspector[~~auditor~~] is not available on the proposed date, in which event a representative of the division[~~assurance fund~~] shall contact the operator and schedule a new date. If no inspector[~~auditor~~] is present at the rescheduled date, the removal may then proceed without penalty; and

(n) Establish that the deadline for submission of final reimbursement requests under the petroleum storage tank account is two (2) years after receipt of a no further action letter.

The funding and operations of the small operator assistance account and the small operator's tank removal account shall end on July 15, 2008.

(2)[~~(3)~~] The division[~~office~~] may advise the cabinet on the promulgation of administrative regulations concerning petroleum storage tanks.

(3)[~~(4)~~] The division[~~office~~] may sue and be sued in its own name.

(4)[~~(5)~~] The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds from the petroleum storage tank account to the small operator tank removal account as needed to satisfy the obligations, future liabilities, and expenses necessary to operate that account. The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds to the financial responsibility account as needed to maintain within that account sufficient funds to demonstrate financial responsibility and to ensure payment of claims as provided in subsection (1)~~(2)~~ of this section.

Section 27. KRS 224.60-140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. The fund shall consist of a financial responsibility account and a petroleum storage tank account. Each account shall be maintained as a separate and distinct interest-bearing account. Interest credited to an account shall be retained in that account. All of the following amounts shall be deposited in the fund:

(a) Four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the financial responsibility account;

(b) One cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the petroleum storage tank account;

(c) Money appropriated by the General Assembly for deposit in each account;

(d) Any money recovered by the fund pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account; and

(e) Any money collected in the form of penalties levied pursuant to KRS 224.60-155 shall be deposited to the appropriate account.

(2) Money in the fund, financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account shall be used by the division[~~office~~] for the following purposes:

(a) To reimburse petroleum storage tank owners or operators for the costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred for corrective action required by the cabinet to be undertaken as the result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank. Reimbursement shall be limited to only those costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred to comply with corrective action requirements established in law or administrative regulation by the cabinet. Additional costs related to compliance with a local program operating under KRS 224.60-105(4) shall be neither reimbursable by the fund nor imposed on the owner or operator. Reimbursement shall not include the costs related to the removal, or actions incidental to the removal, of a tank system except as authorized under KRS 224.60-130*(1)*~~(2)~~;

(b) For payment of or reimbursement for third-party claims for bodily injury and property damage, related to a facility eligible for participation in the financial responsibility account, which are asserted against a petroleum storage tank owner or operator as a result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;

(c) To pay the reasonable, prorated costs incurred by the division[~~office~~] in administering each account; and

(d) The cost to operate the small operators' assistance account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130*(1)~~(2)~~, the small operators' tank removal account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130(1)~~(2)~~, to perform or contract for the performance of financial audits conducted under KRS 224.60-130(1)*~~(2)~~, and to employ sufficient inspectors[~~assurance fund auditors~~] to carry out the provisions of KRS 224.60-130 and to set forth their duties. These costs shall be prorated to each account.

(3) The use of the fund shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for corrective action and one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

(4) Money in the fund may be used by the cabinet for costs incurred by the cabinet for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4).

(5) The fund shall be used to guarantee payment of reasonable costs and expenses to a contractor performing corrective action under contract with a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to entry level amounts payable by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Money in the fund shall be obligated to secure the guarantee.

(6) A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may apply to the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund of costs to perform corrective action, except that the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for an amount equal to the entry level into the fund as set pursuant to administrative regulation of the division[~~office~~].

(7) The division[~~office~~] or its designated agent shall issue all decisions made on claims filed pursuant to this section in writing, with notification to all appropriate parties, within ninety (90) days after submission of the claim, unless all parties to the claim agree in writing to an extension of time. The division[~~office~~] shall by phone or facsimile transmission immediately notify the claim applicant and its consultant, if applicable, when the claim is determined to be deficient. The notification shall provide sufficient information to allow the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, to begin to correct the deficiency. The division[~~office~~] shall then notify the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, by certified mail of the deficiency. The notice shall indicate how many days remain in the ninety (90) day review period from the time of mailing. The review period shall be tolled pending submittal of information responding to the deficiency, but not to exceed thirty (30) days. When the division[~~office~~] receives information that corrects the deficiency, or at the end of the thirty (30) day period, the division[~~office~~] shall complete the review of the claim within the time remaining in the ninety (90) day review period. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the fund from making partial reimbursement as appropriate.

(8) Except as provided in subsection (9), any costs incurred and payable from the fund for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) shall be recovered by the division[~~office~~] from the petroleum storage tank owner or operator which released the petroleum or petroleum products into the environment.

(9) The liability of a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to a cost recovery under this section shall not exceed an amount equal to the entry level into the fund, the division's[~~office's~~] cost incurred in the cost recovery, and any penalties applied in accordance with KRS 224.60-155. This amount shall include any expenditures made by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator for the release into the environment from the petroleum storage tank that is the subject of the cost of recovery.

(10) The amount of costs determined pursuant to subsections (8) and (19) of this section shall be recoverable in a civil action. This subsection does not deprive a party of any defense the party may have.

(11) Money recovered by the division[~~office~~] pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account.

(12) Upon motion and sufficient showing by any party, the court shall join to the action any person who may be liable for costs or expenditures recoverable pursuant to this section.

(13) (a) Any party found liable for any costs or expenditures recoverable under this section who establishes that only a portion of those costs or expenditures are attributable to their actions, shall pay only for that portion.

(b) If the trier of fact finds the evidence insufficient to establish each party's portion of costs or expenditures pursuant to subsection (12) of this section, the court shall apportion those costs or expenditures, to the extent practicable according to equitable principles among the defendants.

(c) The appropriate account shall pay any portion of the judgment in excess of the aggregate amount of costs or expenditures apportioned under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(14) (a) No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer any liability for costs recoverable under this section. This subsection shall not bar any agreement to insure, hold harmless, or indemnify a party to the agreement for any costs under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.

(b) The entry of judgment against any party to the action shall not bar any future action by the fund against any other person who is later discovered to be potentially liable for costs paid from the fund.

(c) Payment of any claim by the fund pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 shall be subject to the state acquiring by subrogation the rights of the claimant to recover those costs of corrective action for which it has compensated the claimant from the person responsible or liable for the release.

(15) This section shall not be construed as authorizing recovery for costs of corrective action resulting from any release authorized or permitted pursuant to state or federal law.

(16) The cabinet shall attempt, to the maximum extent practicable, to secure or obtain funds that may be available for corrective actions under federal laws. However, nothing in this subsection shall prevent the cabinet from expending any funds available under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 if such federal funds are determined to be unavailable.

(17) The fund shall not be used for corrective action, reimbursement, or third-party liability resulting from releases from petroleum storage tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used in the operation of a commercial ship or vessel oil tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used for the purposes of powering locomotives.

(18) (a) Any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division[~~office~~] shall, prior to filing the claim for reimbursement, ensure full payment of the claims of all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor or materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement.

(b) A vendor or subcontractor may waive, in writing, his right to receive full payment before the person files the claim for reimbursement. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment shall also waive, in writing, his right to take legal recourse against the division[~~office~~] and the underground storage tank facility owner or operator for nonpayment from a prime contractor for work performed or materials supplied to the prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall acknowledge in the written waiver that his, his heirs', successors', and assigns' sole recourse for the nonpayment of work performed or materials supplied to a prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility is to proceed against the prime contractor for whom he performed the work or supplied materials. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall release and discharge any liens filed as a result of work performed or materials provided at the underground storage tank facility. Subcontractor and vendor waivers must be made on standard forms furnished by the division[~~office~~]. Their signatures must be notarized.

(c) Unless the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection apply, any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division[~~office~~] shall certify, by affidavit, on standard forms furnished by the division[~~office~~], that all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor and materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement, have been paid in full as of the date of submission of the claim for reimbursement. A single affidavit may be made for each claim for reimbursement, provided, however, that the representations made in the affidavit shall be applied to each vendor or subcontractor individually, and, where false, shall be treated, as to each vendor or subcontractor, as a separate violation for the purpose of applying any criminal statute.

(d) Any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes, or has information, that an affidavit submitted pursuant to this subsection contains false or misleading information, or any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes or has information that an application for financial assistance or a claim for reimbursement contains false or misleading information, shall provide that information to the Commonwealth's attorney whose jurisdiction includes the county where the majority of the subject underground storage tank facility is located. That person may additionally provide the information to any other interested prosecutor with jurisdiction to prosecute crimes pertaining to an application for financial assistance or the claim for reimbursement.

(19) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for any amounts incurred based upon the false statement, representation, or certification. Any costs incurred and paid from the fund which are based on a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be recovered by the fund administrators from the person who asserted the false statement, representation, or certification.

A business entity engaged in the severance or processing of coal, including, but not limited to, administrative or selling functions, shall be considered wholly engaged in the severance or processing of coal for the purpose of this chapter. However, a business entity which is engaged in a separate business activity not related to coal, for which a separate premium charge is not made, shall be deemed to be engaged in the severance or processing of coal only to the extent that the number of employees engaged in the severance or processing of coal bears to the total number of employees. Any employee who is involved in the business of severing or processing of coal and business activities not related to coal shall be prorated based on the time involved in severance or processing of coal bears to his total time.

(24) "Premium" for every group of self-insurers means any and all assessments levied on its members by such group or contributed to it by the members thereof. For special fund assessment purposes, "premium" also includes any and all membership dues, fees, or other payments by members of the group to associations or other entities used for underwriting, claims handling, loss control, premium audit, actuarial, or other services associated with the maintenance or operation of the self-insurance group.

(25) (a) "Premiums received" for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means direct written premiums as reported in the annual statement to the Office~~[Kentucky Department]~~ of Insurance by insurance companies, except that "premiums received" includes premiums charged off or deferred, and, on insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modification, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premiums received" includes the initial premium plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, and fees charged under the deductibles. The special fund assessment rates in effect for reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles shall be those percentages in effect on the effective date of the insurance policy. For policies covering leased employees as defined in KRS 342.615, "premiums received" means premiums calculated using the experience modification factor of each lessee as defined in KRS 342.615 for each leased employee for that portion of the payroll pertaining to the leased employee.

(b) "Direct written premium" for insurance companies means the gross premium written less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken but including policy and membership fees.

The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modifications, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premium" includes the initial consideration plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles.

(28) "Premium" for each employer carrying his own risk pursuant to KRS 342.340(1) shall be the projected value of the employer's workers' compensation claims for the next calendar year as calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] using generally-accepted actuarial methods as follows:

(a) The base period shall be the earliest three (3) calendar years of the five (5) calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the calculation is made. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall identify each claim of the employer which has an injury date or date of last injurious exposure to the cause of an occupational disease during each one (1) of the three (3) calendar years to be used as the base, and shall assign a value to each claim. The value shall be the total of the indemnity benefits paid to date and projected to be paid, adjusted to current benefit levels, plus the medical benefits paid to date and projected to be paid for the life of the claim, plus the cost of medical and vocational rehabilitation paid to date and projected to be paid. Adjustment to current benefit levels shall be done by multiplying the weekly indemnity benefit for each claim by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year for which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect during the year in which the injury or date of the last exposure occurred. The total value of the claims using the adjusted weekly benefit shall then be calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~]. Values for claims in which awards have been made or settlements reached because of findings of permanent partial or permanent total disability shall be calculated using the mortality and interest discount assumptions used in the latest available statistical plan of the advisory rating organization defined in Subtitle 13 of KRS Chapter 304. The sum of all calculated values shall be computed for all claims in the base period.

(b) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall obtain the annual payroll for each of the three (3) years in the base period for each employer carrying his own risk from records of the office[~~department~~] and from the records of the Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall multiply each of the three (3) years of payroll by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year in which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect in each of the years of the base period.

(c) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall divide the total of the adjusted claim values for the three (3) year base period by the total adjusted payroll for the same three (3) year period. The value so calculated shall be multiplied by 1.25 and shall then be multiplied by the employer's most recent annualized payroll, calculated using records of the office[~~department~~] and the Department for Employment Services data which shall be made available for this purpose on a quarterly basis as reported, to obtain the premium for the next calendar year for assessment purposes under KRS 342.122.

(d) For November 1, 1987, through December 31, 1988, premium for each employer carrying his own risk shall be an amount calculated by the board pursuant to the provisions contained in this subsection and such premium shall be provided to each employer carrying his own risk and to the funding commission on or before January 1, 1988. Thereafter, the calculations set forth in this subsection shall be performed annually, at the time each employer applies or renews his application for certification to carry his own risk for the next twelve (12) month period and submits payroll and other data in support of the application. The employer and the funding commission shall be notified at the time of the certification or recertification of the premium calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~], which shall form the employer's basis for assessments pursuant to KRS 342.122 for the calendar year beginning on January 1 following the date of certification or recertification.

(e) If an employer having fewer than five (5) years of doing business in this state applies to carry his own risk and is so certified, his premium for the purposes of KRS 342.122 shall be based on the lesser number of years of experience as may be available including the two (2) most recent years if necessary to create a three (3) year base period. If the employer has less than two (2) years of operation in this state available for the premium calculation, then his premium shall be the greater of the value obtained by the calculation called for in this subsection or the amount of security required by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] pursuant to KRS 342.340(1).

(f) If an employer is certified to carry his own risk after having previously insured the risk, his premium shall be calculated using values obtained from claims incurred while insured for as many of the years of the base period as may be necessary to create a full three (3) year base. After the employer is certified to carry his own risk and has paid all amounts due for assessments upon premiums paid while insured, he shall be assessed only upon the premium calculated under this subsection.

(g) "Premium" for each employer defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall be calculated as set forth in this subsection.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the premium of any employer authorized to carry its own risk for purposes of assessments due under this chapter shall be no less than thirty cents ($0.30) per one hundred dollars ($100) of the employer's most recent annualized payroll for employees covered by this chapter.

Any coal interest holder, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the plat by him or her and by the department, may file specific objections in writing with the department. property interest or right shall notify the applicant and the department, in writing, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the plat by him. The person shall request that a pooling order be entered pursuant to KRS 349.080(1).

(4) If no objections are filed within the twenty (20) day period, the department shall immediately issue a drilling permit to the well operator approving the location of the well and authorizing the well operator to proceed to drill at that location, provided all other preconditions to issuance of a permit, as contained in this chapter, have been met.

(5) Upon receipt of an application to drill a coalbed methane well, the department shall provide a copy of the required plat and permit application to the division[~~DSMRE~~]. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt by the division[~~DSMRE~~] notification shall be sent to the department by the division[~~DSMRE~~] as to whether the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or has been applied for pursuant to KRS Chapter 350. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], or the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in the workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~] or within the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~]. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted, or proposed in a pending application or permit modification to be issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to drill the coalbed methane well. In the absence of the written authorization of the mine permittee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well if:

(a) Authorization has been denied by the mine permittee; and

(b) The proposed location and area to be disturbed by the proposed coalbed methane well has achieved either a partial bond release status or the bond for the area has been forfeited.

Section 46. KRS 349.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to drill, commence, operate, deepen, convert, or stimulate any coalbed methane well, to conduct any horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well or to convert any existing oil or natural gas well to a coalbed methane well, without first securing from the department a permit pursuant to this chapter. Before any well, borehole, or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, is converted for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use, the operator shall obtain a permit and comply with the provisions of this chapter prior to the time that the well, borehole, or facility is converted or used for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use. It is unlawful for any person to drill, deepen, convert, or reopen a coalbed methane well for the production of oil or natural gas or for the injection of water, gas, or other fluids into any oil or natural gas producing formation until the person has obtained a permit from the department for a petroleum or natural gas well pursuant to KRS 353.570. However, no additional permit fee shall be required if the original permit for the coalbed methane well has not expired.

(2) Every permit application filed under this section shall be verified and shall contain the following:

(a) A statement that the applicant claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce coalbed methane from a person claiming a valid real property interest in, the coalbed methane. The statement shall identify with specificity the nature of the real property interest and the document or instrument evidencing that interest or right, including recording information of any recorded document or instrument;

(b) The names and addresses of the coalbed methane well operator and every person or entity whom the applicant must notify under any section of this chapter;

(c) The name and address of each coal interest holder of any workable coalbed which is to be penetrated by a proposed coalbed methane well or within seven hundred fifty (750) horizontal feet or fifty (50) vertical feet of any portion of the proposed coalbed methane well;

(d) The name and addresses of each record oil and gas lessee of, the record oil and gas lessor of, and the operator of all oil and gas formations from the surface to one hundred (100) feet below the deepest penetration of the coalbed methane well on the tract upon which the coalbed methane well is proposed to be located;

(e) The coalbed methane well name or such other identification as the department may require;

(g) A description of any means to be used to stimulate any of the workable coalbeds penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(h) If the proposed coalbed methane well will require casing or tubing, the entire casing program for the coalbed methane well, including the size of each string of pipe, the starting point and depth to which each string is to be set, and the extent to which each string is to be cemented;

(i) If the proposed operation is to convert an existing petroleum or natural gas well, as defined in KRS 353.010(13), or to convert a vertical borehole or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, to a coalbed methane well, all information required by this section, all formations from which production is anticipated, and any plans to plug any portion of the well;

(j) Except for a vent hole proposed to be converted to a coalbed methane well, if the proposed coalbed methane well will be completed in some but not all coal seams for production, a plan and design for the coalbed methane well which will protect all workable coalbeds which will be penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(k) If the proposed operations will include horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well, a description of the operations, including both the vertical and horizontal alignment and extent of the coalbed methane well from the surface to total depth; and

(a) A permit application fee of three hundred dollars ($300);

(b) A bond in an amount prescribed in KRS 349.120;

(c) A certificate that the applicant's notice requirements of KRS 349.015 have been satisfied. Certification may be by affidavit of personal service, or the return receipt card, or other postal receipt, for certified mailing;

(d) If the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within one-half (1/2) of a mile, measuring horizontally, of a water supply well being used for residential or domestic purposes, the applicant will submit the groundwater protection plan required under KRS 224.70-110 and applicable administrative regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for review by the department, or demonstrate to the department that a plan is not required; and

(e) Proof that the applicant has public liability insurance coverage in an amount not less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in aggregate and three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per occurrence for damages to persons and property caused by the applicant's operations or proof that the applicant has satisfied self-insurance requirements as provided by administrative regulations which shall be promulgated by the department.

(4) Prior to the department's issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, a copy of the written authorization from the mine licensee shall be filed with the application under the following circumstances:

(a) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ and if the applicant plans to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~;

(b) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit, or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which no bond release has been obtained; or

(c) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit by the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which a partial bond release has been obtained.

If a coalbed methane well permit is issued for a well site located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350, the permit shall include a provision specifically stating that the permitted coalbed methane well location is in an area for which a coal mine permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350 and is subject to the mine-through rights set forth in KRS 349.030(1).

(5) If a partial bond release for the surface area on which the proposed coalbed methane well is located has been obtained from the division~~[DSMRE]~~ and the applicant is denied written authorization from the mine licensee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well. When requesting an appeal, the applicant shall submit a verified statement including the following:

(a) The applicant has met and conferred with or offered to meet and confer with the mine licensee concerning the authorization;

(b) The mine licensee has refused to provide written authorization to disturb the permitted area;

(c) The physical area to be disturbed by the proposed well location and the use of area, including ingress and egress thereto, qualifies as a commercial or industrial postmining land use entitling the mine licensee to a complete bond release for the area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator in accordance with KRS Chapter 350; and

(d) The applicant has agreed to pay the reasonable and actual costs of the permit revision required by the division~~[DSMRE]~~ to affect the incremental bond release for the proposed area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator, not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(6) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, the applicant shall grant assignable subsidence waivers to any mine licensee if requested in an objection filed pursuant to KRS 349.060 and, if required, to allow present or future mining with planned subsidence under KRS Chapter 350. However, this subsection and any subsidence waivers shall in no way waive, affect, or impair the ability of the applicant or the applicant's successors or assigns to pursue any remedies for damages to persons, or to improved or tangible property, suffered or incurred as a result of any subsidence caused by the mine licensee or the mine licensee's successors or assigns. The mine licensee, its successors or assigns, shall be liable for any and all damages to persons or to improved or tangible property proximately caused by the mine licensee.

(7) If the mine licensee is mining in a coal seam that is not being produced by the coalbed methane well operator and has not exercised his or her mine-through rights, as set forth in KRS 349.030(1) or (2), in any coal mine before removing any coal or other material or driving any entry or passageway within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or within fifty (50) vertical feet of the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well, the mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and to the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date. Maps or plans shall show the mine workings and projected mine workings within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the coalbed methane well. However, the issuance of any coalbed methane well permit shall not preclude or prevent coal mining outside two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or outside of the workable coalbed in which the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well is located, unless specified by the department for reasons of mine or well safety. The mine licensee shall not mine within fifty (50) feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well without the written authorization of the coalbed methane well operator. A mine licensee may file a request with the department to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. The mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a request to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, which shall be accompanied by the following:

(a) A copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date, showing on the copy of the map or plan its mine plan workings and projected mine workings beneath the tract of land and within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well; and

(b) A statement that the applicant has met and conferred with, or offered to meet and confer with, the well operator concerning the mine licensee's plan to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well.

The well operator may, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the documents listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, file specific objections in writing with the department. When objections are filed, the department shall provide a copy of the objections to the mine licensee and fix a time and place for an informal hearing. The hearing shall be held not more than ten (10) days from the end of the twenty (20) day period. At the hearing, the mine licensee and the well operator, in person or by representative, shall consider the objections and seek agreement on the character and the extent of operations to be conducted within less than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. If no agreement can be reached, the department, after administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B, shall make a decision defining what coal, if any, is necessary to be left for the safe protection, use, and operation of the well. The department's decision shall be subject to appeal by either party as provided in this chapter. The department shall keep a complete record of all hearings. The mine licensee shall, every six (6) months, while mining within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, file up-to-date maps and plans required by this section, or file new maps and plans complete to date.

(8) The department may deny the issuance of a permit if it determines that the applicant has a documented pattern or practice of substantial violations of the provisions of this chapter and has failed to abate or seek review of the violations. If the department finds that a substantial violation has occurred with respect to existing operations and that the operator has failed to abate or seek review of the violation in the time prescribed, the department may suspend the permit. After a suspension, the operator shall forthwith cease all work being conducted under the permit until the department reinstates the permit. The department shall make a written finding of its determination and may enforce the determination in Circuit Court pursuant to KRS 349.145.

(6) Only a physician, registered nurse, phlebotomist, medical technician, or medical technologist not otherwise prohibited by law can withdraw any blood of any person submitting to a test under this section.

Tests conducted under this section shall be conducted within a reasonable length of time. For an eligible company, within a regional industrial park which lies within two (2) or more counties, the calculation of the wage and benefit requirement shall be determined by averaging the average county hourly wage for all counties within the regional industrial park.

(5) No economic development project which will result in the replacement of agribusiness, manufacturing, or electric generation facilities existing in the state shall be approved by the authority; however, the authority may approve an economic development project that:

Any economic development project satisfying the requirements of this subsection shall only be eligible for inducements to the extent of the expansion, and no inducements shall be available for the equivalent of the agribusiness, manufacturing, or electric generation facility to be replaced. No economic development project otherwise satisfying the requirements of this subsection shall be approved by the authority which results in a lease abandonment or lease termination by the approved company without the consent of the lessor.

(6) With respect to each eligible company making an application to the authority for inducements, and with respect to the economic development project described in the application, the authority shall request materials and make inquiries of the applicant as necessary or appropriate. Upon review of the application and completion of initial inquiries, the authority may, by resolution, give its preliminary approval by designating an eligible company as a preliminarily approved company and authorizing the undertaking of the economic development project. After preliminary approval, the authority may by final approval designate an eligible company to be an approved company.

The secretary shall not employ or pay any person who is an officer or committee member of any political party organization. The secretary may delegate to any such person so appointed such power and authority as he or she deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this chapter.

(3) The salary and expenses of the secretary and his or her staff shall be considered a proper cost of the administration of this chapter, to be charged to the unemployment compensation administration fund in that proportion which the cost of such services rendered in the administration of this chapter bears to the overall cost of the services rendered in the administration of the cabinet.

(4) The secretary shall submit to the Governor an annual report covering the administration and operation of this chapter and make such recommendations for amendments to this chapter as he or she deems proper.

(5) In the administration of this chapter the secretary shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible with any agency of this state or any other state or of the United States and shall take such action, through the adoption of appropriate rules, regulations, administrative methods, and standards, as may be necessary to secure for this state and its citizens all the advantages available under the provisions of the Social Security Act, as amended, that relate to unemployment compensation, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as amended, the Wagner-Peyser Act, as amended, and the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970.

Section 145. KRS 341.145 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of the Education Cabinet may enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states or of the federal government, or both, for the purpose of assisting the secretary and such agencies in the payment of benefits and the furnishing of services to unemployed or underemployed workers. Such arrangements may provide that the respective agencies shall, for and on behalf of each other, act as agents in effecting registrations for work, notices of unemployment, and any other certifications or statements relating to a worker's claim for benefits; in making investigations, taking depositions, holding hearings, or otherwise securing information relating to benefit eligibility and payments; and in such other matters as the secretary considers suitable in effectuating the purpose of these administrative arrangements.

(2) The secretary may enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states or the federal government whereby workers performing services in this and other states for a single employing unit under circumstances not specifically provided in KRS 341.050, or under similar provisions in the unemployment compensation laws of such other states, shall be deemed to be engaged in employment performed entirely within this state or within one of such other states.

(3) (a) The secretary shall participate in any arrangements for the payment of benefits on the basis of combining an individual's wages and employment covered under this chapter with his wages and employment covered under the unemployment compensation laws of other states or the federal government which are approved by the United States Secretary of Labor in consultation with the state unemployment compensation agencies as reasonably calculated to assure the prompt and full payment of benefits in such situations and which include provisions for applying the base period of a single state law to a claim involving the combining of an individual's wages and employment covered under two (2) or more state unemployment compensation laws, and avoiding the duplicate use of wages and employment by reason of such combining. Reimbursements to another state or the federal government, paid from the fund pursuant to this subsection, shall be deemed to be benefits for the purposes of this chapter and charged to contributory employers' reserve accounts and reimbursing employers' accounts in accordance with the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of KRS 341.530 to the extent of calculations made on wages paid during the base period established by KRS 341.090 and wages paid after such base period; provided, however, benefits based on a period previous to the base-wage period established by KRS 341.090 shall be charged to the pooled account for contributing employers only. Provided, that if the Secretary of Labor determines that the charging of reimbursements provided above is inconsistent with the requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, charges of such reimbursements shall then be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the secretary.

(b) In order that such reciprocal arrangements, when entered into, may be effectuated, wages for insured work under an employment security law of another state or of the federal government shall be deemed to be wages earned in covered employment from a subject employer for the purpose of determining his benefits under this chapter.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, benefits shall not be denied or reduced to an individual solely because he files a claim in another state (or a contiguous country with which the United States has an agreement with respect to unemployment compensation) or because he resides in another state (or such a contiguous country) at the time he files a claim for benefits.

(5) To the extent permissible under the laws and Constitution of the United States, the secretary is authorized to enter into or cooperate in arrangements or reciprocal agreements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other states or the United States Secretary of Labor or both, whereby:

(a) Overpayments of unemployment benefits, as determined under this chapter, shall be recoverable (after due notice and opportunity for appeal has been provided to the claimant) by offset from unemployment benefits otherwise payable under the unemployment compensation law of another state, in either the current or any subsequent benefit year, in an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined under this chapter, provided the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] certifies to the other state the facts involved and that the claimant is liable to repay the benefits and the office[~~department~~] requests the other state to recover the benefits; and

(b) Overpayments of unemployment benefits, as determined under the unemployment compensation law of another state, shall be recoverable (after such state has provided due notice and opportunity for appeal to the claimant) by offset from unemployment benefits otherwise payable under this chapter, in either the current or subsequent benefit year, in an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by such other state, provided such state certifies to the office[~~department~~] the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and the state requests the office[~~department~~] to recover the benefits; and

(c) Provided there is in effect a reciprocal agreement between this state and the United States Secretary of Labor, as authorized by Section 303(g)(2) of the Social Security Act, the overpayment of unemployment benefits or allowances for unemployment provided under a federal program administered by this state shall be recoverable by offset from benefits otherwise payable under this chapter or any such federal program. Such agreement shall also suffice to permit the offset from unemployment benefits, otherwise payable under a federal program administered by this state, the overpayment of unemployment benefits paid under this chapter.

If another state also has in effect a like agreement with the United States Secretary of Labor, then these provisions for cross-offset of state and federal unemployment benefits shall apply to benefits otherwise payable under this chapter, the laws of the other state or any federal unemployment program administered by either state.

Section 146. KRS 341.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records of all workers employed by it, of the wages paid by it to each worker, and such other information as the secretary of the Education Cabinet[~~for workforce development~~] considers necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The records shall be open for inspection and subject to being copied by the secretary or his or her authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as necessary.

(2) The secretary[~~ for workforce development~~] may require any employing unit to furnish to the cabinet at its central office from time to time information concerning the total amounts of wages paid, total number of persons employed, an individual record of each worker employed, an individual record of each worker whose employment has been terminated or who has been laid off, an individual wage and hour record of each worker employed part time entitled to benefits, and other related matters, including hours worked, which the secretary[~~ for workforce development~~] considers necessary to the effective administration of this chapter.

(3) Information obtained from an employing unit or individual and other records made by the cabinet in the administration of this chapter are confidential and shall not be published or be open for public inspection, except as provided below:

(a) Information may be made available to public employees in the performance of their duties, but the agency receiving the information shall assure the confidentiality, as provided for in this section, of all information so released.

(b) A claimant or employing unit or his legal representative shall be provided upon request information or records maintained by the cabinet in the administration of his claim, his reserve account, his reimbursing employer account, or any proceeding under this chapter to which he is a party.

(c) Statistical information derived from information and records obtained or made by the cabinet may be published, if it in no way reveals the identity of any claimant or employing unit.

(d) Nothing in this section shall preclude the secretary or any employee of the cabinet from testifying in any proceeding under this chapter or in any court, or from introducing as evidence information or records obtained or made by the cabinet in an action for violation of state or federal law to which the cabinet is a party or upon order of the court.

(4) No information or records held confidential under subsection (3) of this section shall be the subject matter or basis for any suit for slander or libel in any court, but no employer or employee, or his representative, testifying before the commission, the secretary, or any duly authorized representative thereof, shall be exempt from punishment for perjury.

Section 147. KRS 341.200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter members of the commission, the secretary or any duly authorized representative thereof, may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records considered necessary and relevant as evidence in connection with the administration of this chapter. Such subpoena shall be served in the same manner as a subpoena issued out of a Circuit Court, and the sheriff shall receive the same fee as provided by law for like service in civil actions. Witnesses subpoenaed shall be allowed witnesses' fees according to the rates prescribed by KRS 421.015 for each day their attendance is actually required at a hearing.

(2) The secretary, or the commission, or any of their authorized representatives[~~representative of the secretary~~], shall have the power, in any and all counties of this Commonwealth, now granted by law to sheriffs within their respective jurisdictions, to execute and make due return of all notices, summonses, including summonses duces tecum, subpoenas, and executions in respect to all court actions instituted to enforce the provisions of this chapter.[~~ Neither~~] The secretary, a member of the commission, or any of their authorized representatives[~~nor his authorized representative~~] shall not be deemed to be an interested party in the action by reason of his official or representative capacity.

Section 148. KRS 341.230 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary may authorize the destruction of such original reports and records as have been properly recorded and summarized in the permanent records of the Education Cabinet[~~ for Workforce Development~~] or are no longer considered necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. Wage records of the individual worker or transcripts thereof may be destroyed or disposed of two (2) years after the expiration of the period covered by them or upon proof of death of the worker. Such destruction or disposition shall be made only by order of the secretary. Any money received from the disposition of such records shall be deposited to the credit of the unemployment compensation administration fund.

Section 149. KRS 341.243 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created within the State Treasury a special fund known as the service capacity upgrade fund that shall be administered separate and apart from all public money or funds of the state.

(2) The service capacity upgrade fund shall be used solely for acquisition and upgrading of the technology base, program integrity functions, and service delivery capacity in support of the programs administered by the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~]. The secretary shall have full power, authority, and jurisdiction over the fund, including all money, property, and securities belonging thereto, and shall perform any act necessary or convenient in the administration of the fund consistent with this section. The secretary shall provide an annual report to the Interim Joint Committee on Labor and Industry detailing all receipts and expenditures of the fund.

(3) Any money collected under the provisions of this section shall be invested at interest in banks or other interest-bearing obligations of the United States. Investments shall at all times be made so that all the assets of the service capacity upgrade fund shall be convertible into cash when needed for the payment of expenses incurred in upgrading the service capacity of the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~]. All interest income received under this section shall be credited to the fund. The State Treasurer shall dispose of securities or other property belonging to the fund only under the direction of the secretary and the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(4) Effective January 1, 1999, all rates otherwise established under KRS 341.270 and 341.272 shall be reduced by subtracting seventy-five thousandths percent (0.075%) from each rate, but only if the trust fund balance as of December 31 of the preceding year is equal to or greater than one and eighteen hundredths percent (1.18%) of the total wages paid in the state during the state fiscal year ended as of June 30 of that year.

(a) If the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1999, is less than the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1998, the amount of the rate reduction for calendar year 2000 shall be reduced by forty percent (40%) to the level of forty-five thousandths percent (0.045%).

(b) If the trust fund balance as of December 31, 2000, is less than the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1999, the amount of the rate reduction for calendar year 2001 shall be forty percent (40%) less than the amount of the rate reduction which was in effect in calendar year 2000.

(5) For any calendar year in which all rates have been reduced in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, all contributory employers shall pay into the service capacity upgrade fund an amount equal to the percentage by which rates were reduced multiplied by their taxable wages paid during that calendar year. Payments shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as prescribed for payment of contributions under KRS 341.260 and all regulations prescribed by the secretary in support of that section. The restrictions in KRS 341.470(1) apply equally to the provisions of this section. Failure to make these payments shall be subject to interest and all other collection actions provided for failure to make contributions under KRS 341.300.

(6) All payments required under subsection (5) of this section, along with any interest due to late payment of these assessments, shall be deposited in the service capacity upgrade fund.

(7) The provisions of this section shall expire with regard to rates assigned for calendar years beginning after December 31, 2001, and any balance of moneys or property in the fund not expended or obligated for purposes consistent with this section by June 30, 2002, shall be deposited in the unemployment insurance trust fund.

Section 150. KRS 341.245 is amended to read as follows:

Subject to the provisions of KRS 56.440 to 56.550, inclusive, the secretary of the Education Cabinet is authorized and empowered to use all or any part of the funds accumulated under the provisions of KRS 341.295 for the purpose of acquiring suitable space for either central or district offices of the cabinet by way of purchase, lease, contract, or in any other manner including the right to use said funds or any part thereof to assist in financing the construction of any building erected by the Commonwealth or any of its agencies wherein available space will be provided for the cabinet under lease or contract between the cabinet and the Commonwealth or such other agency whereby said cabinet will continue to occupy such space, rent free, after the cost of financing such building has been liquidated.

Section 151. KRS 341.250 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employing unit that becomes subject to this chapter within any calendar year shall be considered a subject employer during the whole of that calendar year, except as specifically provided elsewhere in this section or this chapter.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (5) of this section, a subject employer shall cease to be a subject employer only as of the first day of January of any calendar year if he files with the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~department~~], on or before the fifteenth day of April of that year, a written application for termination of coverage, and the covered employment performed for such subject employer within the preceding calendar year was not sufficient to render an employing unit a subject employer under KRS 341.070. The secretary may, however, after notifying such employer in writing at his last known address, terminate the coverage of any subject employer as of the first day of January of any calendar year if such subject employer has had no individuals in covered employment in this state at any time during the three (3) preceding calendar years, and the balance of such employer's reserve account may be immediately transferred to the pooled account.

(3) (a) Any employing unit not otherwise subject to this chapter that files with the office[~~department~~] its written election to become a subject employer for not less than two (2) calendar years shall, with the written approval of such election by the secretary, become subject hereto to the same extent as all other subject employers, as of the date stated in such approval, but not with respect to the period previous to such date. Such subject employer shall cease to be subject hereto as of January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to such two (2) calendar years, only if on or before April 15 of such year, it has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written notice to that effect.

(b) Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute covered employment are performed may file with the office[~~department~~] a written election that all such services performed by individuals in its employ in one (1) or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be considered to constitute covered employment by a subject employer for all the purposes of this chapter for not less than two (2) calendar years. Upon written approval of such election by the secretary, such services shall be considered to constitute covered employment from and after the date stated in such approval, but not with respect to the period previous to such date. Such services shall cease to be considered covered employment subject hereto as of January 1 of a calendar year subsequent to such two (2) calendar years, only if on or before April 15 of such year such employing unit has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written notice to that effect.

(c) Any employing unit having service performed in covered employment solely by reason of paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of KRS 341.050 may terminate such service as "covered employment" as of the first day of January of any calendar year if such service does not meet the provisions of paragraph (e), (f) or (g), but only if on or before April 15 of such year, the employing unit has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written request to terminate service as "covered employment."

(4) An employing unit that becomes a subject employer under subsection (7) of KRS 341.070, shall become subject as of the date of acquisition.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, any subject employer whose entire reserve account has been transferred to a successor in interest as provided for in KRS 341.540 shall immediately cease to be a subject employer and shall thereafter become a subject employer only upon his future employment experience.

Section 152. KRS 341.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each subject employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this chapter. Such contributions shall be based upon wages paid during such calendar year for covered employment. Such contributions shall become due and be paid at the offices of the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] in Frankfort by each subject employer to the office[~~department~~] for the fund in accordance with such regulations as the secretary prescribes, and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of workers in his employ. In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded, unless it amounts to one-half cent ($0.005) or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent ($0.01).

(2) Any contractor, who is or becomes a subject employer under the provisions of this chapter, who contracts with any subcontractor, who also is or becomes a subject employer under the provisions of this chapter, shall withhold sufficient moneys on said contract to guarantee that all contributions, penalties, and interest are paid upon completion of said contract, or shall require of said subcontractor a good and sufficient bond guaranteeing payment of all contributions, penalties, and interest due, or to become due with respect to wages paid for employment on said contract. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said contractor directly liable for such contributions, penalties, and interest due from said subcontractor and the wages paid by said subcontractor shall be deemed wages paid by the said contractor with respect to the same periods for all purposes under this chapter, and liens of the same nature are attachable and enforceable in the same manner as liens under KRS 341.310 and 341.315. A person, employing unit, or entity that enters into a verbal or written agreement with another, or between which there exists an implied contract based upon the circumstances, conduct, or acts or relations of the parties:

(a) To have work performed consisting of the removal, excavation or drilling of soil, rock, or mineral, or the cutting or removal of timber from land, or

(b) To have work performed of a kind which is a customary or a recurrent part of the work of the trade, business, occupation, or profession of such person or entity, shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed a contractor, and such other person or entity a subcontractor. This subsection shall not apply to the owner or lessee of land principally used for agriculture.

Section 153. KRS 341.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each employer's contribution rate shall be three percent (3%). Effective for employers who become subject to this chapter on or after January 1, 1999, except as otherwise provided in this section, each employer's contribution rate shall be two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no subject employer's contribution rate shall be less than two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%), unless he has been an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter for twelve (12) consecutive calendar quarters ended as of the computation date. In any calendar year in which the rate schedule prescribed in paragraph (3)(a) of this section is in effect, no subject employer who was assigned an entry rate of three percent (3.0%) under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section prior to January 1, 1999, shall have a contribution rate less than two and eight hundred fifty-seven thousandths percent (2.857%), unless subject to this chapter for the minimum time period specified above.

(3) For the calendar year 2001 and each calendar year thereafter, employer contribution rates shall be determined in accordance with "Table A" set out in subsection (4) of this section. For each calendar year, the secretary shall determine the rate schedule to be in effect based upon the "trust fund balance" as of December 31 of the preceding year. If the "trust fund balance":

(a) Equals or exceeds one and eighteen hundredths percent (1.18%) of the total wages paid in covered employment in the state during the state fiscal year ended as of June 30 of that year, the rates listed in the "Trust Fund Adequacy Rates" schedule of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(b) Equals or exceeds three hundred fifty million dollars ($350,000,000) but is less than the amount required to effectuate the "Trust Fund Adequacy Rates" schedule as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the rates listed in "Schedule A" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(c) Equals or exceeds two hundred seventy-five million dollars ($275,000,000) but is less than three hundred fifty million dollars ($350,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule B" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(d) Equals or exceeds two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000) but is less than two hundred seventy-five million dollars ($275,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule C" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(e) Equals or exceeds one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) but is less than two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule D" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(f) Is less than one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule E" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(4) For the calendar year 1982 and each calendar year thereafter, contribution rates shall be determined upon the basis of an individual employer's reserve ratio as of the computation date and the schedule of rates established under subsection (3) of this section. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the contribution rate for each subject employer for the calendar year immediately following the computation date shall be the rate in that "Schedule" of "Table A," as set out below, effective with respect to the calendar year, which appears on the same line as his reserve ratio as shown in the "Employer Reserve Ratio" column of the same table.

(5) As used in this section and elsewhere in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Trust fund balance" means the amount of money in the unemployment insurance fund, less any unpaid advances made to the state under Section 1201 of the Social Security Act. In determining the amount in the fund as of a given date all money received by the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ on that date shall be considered as being in the fund on that date.

(b) "Total wages" means all remuneration for services, as defined in KRS 341.030(1) to (7), paid by subject employers.

(c) An employer's "reserve ratio" means the percentage ratio of his reserve account balance as of the computation date to his taxable payrolls for the twelve (12) consecutive calendar quarters ended as of September 30 immediately preceding the computation date.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an employer's "reserve account balance" means the amount of contributions credited to his reserve account as of the computation date, less the benefit charges through September 30 immediately preceding the computation date. If benefits charged to an account exceed contributions credited to the account, the account shall be considered as having a debit balance and a reserve ratio of "less than zero."

(e) "Computation date" is October 31 of each calendar year prior to the effective date of new rates of contributions.

Section 154. KRS 341.275 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, a nonprofit organization is an organization (or group of organizations) described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from income tax under Section 501(a) of such code. For the purpose of this section, "cabinet" shall mean the Education Cabinet[~~ for Workforce Development~~] and "secretary" shall mean the secretary of the Education Cabinet[~~for workforce development~~].

(2) Any nonprofit organization which, pursuant to KRS 341.070(4), is, or becomes, a subject employer shall pay contributions under the provisions of KRS 341.270, unless it elects, in accordance with this section, to pay to the cabinet for the fund an amount equal to the amount of regular benefits and of one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid to workers for weeks of unemployment that is attributable to service in the employ of the nonprofit organization, performed during the effective period of the election but only if the employer is the worker's most recent employer. No employer shall be deemed to be the most recent employer unless the eligible worker to whom benefits are payable shall have worked for that employer in each of ten (10) weeks whether or not consecutive.

(a) Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes, a subject employer on July 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than the remainder of 1972 and the calendar year of 1973, provided it files with the cabinet a written notice of its election within the thirty (30) day period immediately following such date.

(b) Any nonprofit organization which becomes a subject employer after July 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than the period of subjectivity during the year in which such subjectivity begins and the following calendar year by filing a written notice of its election with the cabinet not later than thirty (30) days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.

(c) Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subsection will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the secretary a written notice terminating its election not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which such termination shall first be effective, except that liability for payments in lieu of contributions shall continue thereafter with respect to wages paid prior to the effective date of such termination.

(d) Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this chapter for a period subsequent to July 1, 1972, may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the cabinet not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of any calendar year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by such organization for that and the following year.

(e) The secretary may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1969.

(f) The secretary shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which may be made of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Such determinations shall be subject to appeal and review in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.430(2).

(3) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(a) At the end of each calendar quarter, the cabinet shall bill each nonprofit organization (or group of such organizations) which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half (1/2) of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter plus any prior period adjustments, which are attributable to service performed in covered employment in the employ of such organization.

(b) Payment of any bill rendered under paragraph (a) shall be made not later than thirty (30) days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the nonprofit organization or was otherwise delivered to it, unless there has been an application for review in accordance with paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(c) Payments made by any nonprofit organization under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of workers in the employ of the organization.

(d) The amount due specified in any bill from the secretary shall be conclusive on the organization unless, not later than fifteen (15) days after the bill was mailed to its last known address or otherwise delivered to it, the organization files an appeal to the commissioner[~~cabinet~~], setting forth the grounds for such appeal. Proceedings on appeal to the commissioner[~~cabinet~~] from the amount of a bill rendered under this subsection shall be in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.430 and the decision of the commissioner[~~cabinet~~] shall be subject to review under the provisions of KRS 341.460(1).

(e) Past-due payments of amounts in lieu of contributions shall be subject to the same interest, penalties, collection service, and lien provisions that, pursuant to KRS 341.300 to 341.310, apply to past-due contributions.

(4) (a) The secretary may, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the cabinet, require any nonprofit organization that elects to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions to deposit with the cabinet, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of its election as a condition thereof, money equal to two percent (2%) of the organization's total wages paid for employment as defined in KRS 341.050(1)(e) for the four (4) calendar quarters immediately preceding the effective date of such election. If the nonprofit organization did not pay wages in each of such four (4) calendar quarters, the amount of the deposit shall be as determined by the secretary.

(b) Money deposited in accordance with this subsection shall be retained by the cabinet in an escrow account until all possible liability to the fund under the election is terminated, at which time it shall be returned to the organization, less any deductions as hereinafter provided. The cabinet may deduct from the money deposited under this subsection by a nonprofit organization to the extent necessary to satisfy any due and unpaid payments in lieu of contributions and any applicable interest and penalties provided for in paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of this section. The secretary shall require the organization within thirty (30) days following any deduction from a money deposit under the provisions of this subsection to deposit sufficient additional money to make whole the organization's deposit at the prior level. The secretary may, at any time, review the adequacy of the deposit made by any organization. If, as a result of such review, he determines that an adjustment is necessary, he shall require the organization to make additional deposit within thirty (30) days of written notice of his determination or shall return to it such portion of the deposit as he no longer considers necessary, whichever action is appropriate.

(c) If any nonprofit organization fails to make a deposit, or to increase or make whole the amount of a previously made deposit, as provided under this subsection, the secretary may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions and such termination shall continue for not less than the remainder of that calendar year and the following calendar year beginning with the quarter in which such termination becomes effective; provided, that the secretary may extend for good cause the applicable filing, deposit, or adjustment period by not more than sixty (60) days.

(5) If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions as required under subsection (3) of this section, the secretary may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next calendar year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the next calendar year.

(6) Notwithstanding any other section of this chapter, no employing unit electing to make payments in lieu of contributions under the provisions of this section shall be entitled to relief of benefit charges.

Section 155. KRS 341.300 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Contributions unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable, as prescribed by the secretary, shall be subject to interest at the rate of one and five-tenths percent (1.5%) per month or fraction thereof, not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the amount of such contributions, from and after such date until payment is received by the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~department~~], irrespective of whether such delinquency has been reduced to a judgment or not as provided in subsection (2) of this section or is the subject of an administrative appeal or court action. Such interest shall be paid into the unemployment compensation administration fund.

(2) If, after due notice, any subject employer defaults in any payment of contributions, interest or penalties thereon, the amount due shall be collected by a civil action instituted in the Franklin Circuit Court or the Franklin District Court depending upon the jurisdictional amount in controversy including interest and penalties in the name of the state, and the subject employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of the action. Civil actions brought under this section shall be heard by the court, without the intervention of a jury, at the earliest possible date, and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this chapter and cases arising under the workers' compensation law.

(3) At or after the commencement of an action under subsection (2) of this section attachment may be had against the property of the liable subject employer for such contributions, interest and penalties without the execution of a bond, or after judgment has been entered an execution may be issued against the property of such employer without the execution of a bond.

(4) An action for the recovery of contributions, interest or penalties under this section shall be barred and any lien therefor shall be canceled and extinguished unless collected or suit for collection has been filed within five (5) years from the due date of such contributions, except in the case of the filing of a false or fraudulent report the contributions due shall not be barred and may at any time be collected by the methods set out in this chapter, including action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 156. KRS 341.360 is amended to read as follows:

No worker may be paid benefits for any week of unemployment:

(1) With respect to which a strike or other bona fide labor dispute which caused him to leave or lose his employment is in active progress in the establishment in which he is or was employed, except that benefits may be paid unless the employer notifies the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] in writing within seven (7) days after the beginning of such alleged strike or labor dispute of the alleged existence of such strike or labor dispute. For the purpose of this subsection a lockout shall not be deemed to be a strike or a bona fide labor dispute and no worker shall be denied benefits by reason of a lockout;

(2) For which he has received or is seeking unemployment compensation under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States, except as otherwise provided by an arrangement between this state and such other state or the United States. But if the appropriate agency of such state or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment compensation, this subsection shall not apply; or

(3) (a) Which, when based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution of higher education as defined in subsection (2) of KRS 341.067 or in an educational institution as defined in subsection (4) of KRS 341.067, begins during the period between two (2) successive academic years, or during a similar period between two (2) regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the worker performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the worker will perform such services in any such capacity for any institution or institutions of higher education or an educational institution in the second of such academic years or such terms; or

(b) Which, when based on service other than as defined in paragraph (a) of this subsection, in an institution of higher education or an educational institution, as defined in subsection (2) or (4) of KRS 341.067, begins during the period between two (2) successive academic years or terms, if the worker performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the worker will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms; except that if benefits are denied to any worker under this paragraph and such worker was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for such institution of higher education or such educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, such worker shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the worker filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this paragraph; or

(c) Which, when based on service in any capacity defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the worker performs any such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that such worker will perform any such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess; or

(d) Based on service in any capacity defined in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection when such service is performed by the worker in an institution of higher education or an educational institution, as defined in subsection (2) or (4) of KRS 341.067, while the worker is in the employ of an educational service agency, and such unemployment begins during the periods and pursuant to the conditions specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection. For purposes of this paragraph the term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or governmental entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing such services to one (1) or more institutions of higher education or educational institutions.

(4) Except that any benefits paid to a worker based on service other than as defined in subsection (3)(a) of this section performed in an institution of higher education as defined in subsection (2) of KRS 341.067 shall be deemed to have been paid as a result of Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~departmental~~] error and not recoverable by the cabinet or such institution if such payment is improper by virtue of the retroactive application to October 30, 1983, of subsection (3)(b) of this section.

(5) Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two (2) successive sport seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons (or similar periods).

(6) (a) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of Section 203(a)(7) or Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act).

(b) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(c) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of his alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) With respect to which the worker is suspended from work for misconduct, as defined in KRS 341.370(6), connected with the work.

Section 157. KRS 341.370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which:

(a) He has failed without good cause either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the secretary or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment when so directed by the secretary; or

(b) He has been discharged for misconduct or dishonesty connected with his most recent work, or from any work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded his most recent work, but legitimate activity in connection with labor organizations or failure to join a company union shall not be construed as misconduct; or

(c) He has left his most recent suitable work or any other suitable work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded his most recent work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employment. No otherwise eligible worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for leaving his next most recent suitable work which was concurrent with his most recent work, or for leaving work which is one hundred (100) road miles or more, as measured on a one (1) way basis, from his home to accept work which is less than one hundred (100) road miles from his home, or for otherwise accepting work which is a bona fide job offer with a reasonable expectation of continued employment.

(2) A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for any week with respect to which he knowingly made a false statement to establish his right to or the amount of his benefits, and, within the succeeding twenty-four (24) months, for the additional weeks immediately following the date of discovery, not to exceed a total of fifty-two (52), as may be determined by the secretary.

(3) No worker shall be disqualified under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of this section unless the employer, within a reasonable time as prescribed by regulations promulgated by the secretary, notifies the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ and the worker in writing of the alleged voluntary quitting or the discharge for misconduct. Nothing in this subsection shall restrict the right of the secretary to disqualify a worker whose employer has refused or failed to notify the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ of the alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct, if the alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct is known to the secretary prior to the time benefits are paid to the worker. The exercise of the right by the secretary, in the absence of timely notice from the employer, shall not relieve the employer's reserve account or reimbursing employer's account of benefit charges under the provisions of subsection (3) of KRS 341.530.

(4) As used in this section and in subsection (3) of KRS 341.530, "most recent" work shall be construed as that work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded the week of unemployment with respect to which benefits are claimed; except that, if the work last preceding the week of unemployment was seasonal, intermittent, or temporary in nature, most recent work may be construed as that work last preceding the seasonal, intermittent, or temporary work.

(5) No worker shall be disqualified or held ineligible under the provisions of this section or KRS 341.350, who is separated from employment pursuant to a labor management contract or agreement, or pursuant to an established employer plan, program, or policy, which permits the employer to close the plant or facility for purposes of vacation or maintenance.

(6) "Discharge for misconduct" as used in this section shall include, but not be limited to, separation initiated by an employer for falsification of an employment application to obtain employment through subterfuge; knowing violation of a reasonable and uniformly enforced rule of an employer; unsatisfactory attendance if the worker cannot show good cause for absences or tardiness; damaging the employer's property through gross negligence; refusing to obey reasonable instructions; reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs or consuming alcohol or drugs on employer's premises during working hours; conduct endangering safety of self or co-workers; and incarceration in jail following conviction of a misdemeanor or felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, which results in missing at least five (5) days work.

(7) "Duration of any period of unemployment," as that term is used in this section, shall be the period of time beginning with the worker's discharge, voluntary quitting, or failure to apply for or accept suitable work and running until the worker has worked in each of ten (10) weeks, whether or not consecutive, and has earned ten (10) times his weekly benefit rate in employment covered under the provisions of this chapter or a similar law of another state or of the United States.

Section 158. KRS 341.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall appoint one (1) or more impartial referees according to KRS 341.125 to hear and decide appealed claims.

(2) A party to a determination may file an appeal to a referee as to any matter therein within fifteen (15) days after the date such determination was mailed to his last known address.

(3) If benefits are allowed by a determination of the secretary, or a decision of a referee, the commission, the secretary or a reviewing-court, such benefits shall be paid promptly without regard to the pendency of an appeal or period for filing an appeal therefrom. If a determination or decision allowing benefits is modified or reversed by a subsequent determination or decision, benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in accordance with such modification or denial. No injunction, supersedeas, stay or other writ or process suspending payment of such benefits shall be issued.

(4) Unless such appeal is withdrawn, a referee, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the determination. The parties shall be duly notified of his decision, together with the reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision unless within fifteen (15) days after the date of mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated under KRS 341.430.

(5) No finding of fact or law, judgment, conclusion, or final order made with respect to a claim for unemployment compensation under this chapter may be conclusive or binding in any separate or subsequent action or proceeding in another forum, except proceedings under this chapter, regardless of whether the prior action was between the same or related parties or involved the same facts.

Section 159. KRS 341.440 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The manner in which appeals are presented and hearings and appeals conducted shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the secretary for determining the rights of the parties, such hearings to be conducted in a summary manner. A complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with any appeal. All testimony at any hearing upon an appeal shall be recorded either stenographically or mechanically, but need not be transcribed unless further appealed. No examiner, referee or member of the commission shall participate in any hearing in which he is an interested party.

(2) Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to proceedings under KRS 341.420 and 341.430 shall be allowed fees in accordance with rates allowed by law. Such fees and all expenses of proceedings before the cabinet[~~department~~] or commission involving disputed claims shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering this chapter.

(3) In the absence of an appeal therefrom, decisions of the commission shall become final twenty (20) days after the date they are made.

Section 160. KRS 341.410 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary[~~commissioner~~] acting through his duly authorized representatives shall, upon request, determine the insured status of a worker. If a worker is found to have fully insured status, as defined in subsection (3) of KRS 341.090, the division shall notify all interested parties. If found to be not fully insured, the division shall notify the worker. The commissioner may, at any time within a worker's benefit year, make such further determinations as may affect the worker's eligibility for benefits or may set aside, reconsider, modify, or amend a determination at any time on the basis of additional information or to correct a clerical mistake. The commission may by regulation prescribe what constitutes a determination as used in this section and subsections (2) and (3) of KRS 341.420.

Section 161. KRS 341.415 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has received any sum as benefits under this chapter or any other state's unemployment insurance statutes or any United States Department of Labor unemployment insurance benefit program providing the secretary has signed a reciprocal agreement with such other state or the United States Department of Labor as provided in KRS 341.145, while any condition for the receipt of such benefits was not fulfilled in his case, or while he was disqualified from receiving benefits, or if he has received benefits in weeks for which he later receives a back pay award, shall, in the discretion of the secretary, either have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter or repay the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] for the fund a sum equal to the amount so received by him. If after due notice the recipient of such sum fails to remit or arrange for remittance of the sum, the sum may be collected in the manner provided in KRS 341.300(2) for collection of past-due contributions and any sums so collected shall be credited to the pooled account or the appropriate reimbursing employer account. However, if the benefit was paid as a result of office[~~departmental~~] error as defined by administrative regulation, there shall be no recoupment or recovery of an improperly paid benefit, except by deduction from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter. For purposes of this section, overpayments as a result of a reversal of entitlement to benefits in the appeal or review process shall not be construed to be the result of office[~~departmental~~] error.

(2) At or after the commencement of an action under subsection (1) of this section, attachment may be had against property of the recipient of improperly paid benefits in the manner provided in KRS 341.300(3).

(3) A lien on a parity with state, county, and municipal ad valorem tax liens, is hereby created in favor of the department upon all property of any recipient of improperly paid benefits. This lien shall be for a sum equal to the amount of the overpayment finally determined and shall continue until the amount of the overpayment plus any subsequent assessment of additional improperly paid benefits, interest, and fees are fully paid. The lien shall commence from such time as the recipient has exhausted or abandoned the appeal procedure set forth in this chapter and the amount of the overpayment is finally fixed. A notice of lien may be filed in the same manner as that provided for in KRS 341.310.

(4) Any amount paid to a person as benefits, which he has been found liable to repay or to have deducted from future benefits under subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, which has neither been repaid nor so deducted within a period of five (5) years following the last day of the benefit year within which it was paid, may be deemed to be uncollectible and shall be permanently charged to the pooled account, except that if such payment was made by reason of fraudulent representations, no future benefits shall be paid such person within a period of ten (10) years of the last day of the benefit year within which such payments were made at which time these amounts may be declared uncollectible. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to affect collection of improperly paid benefits pursuant to a judgment or other legal remedy.

(5) In the event benefits have been paid as a result of false statement, misrepresentation, or concealment of material information by a recipient of benefits and have not been repaid by the recipient within one (1) calendar year from the date of the first notice, interest at the rate of one and five-tenths percent (1.5%) per month or any part thereof, shall be imposed on and added to the unpaid balance each successive month, providing due notice has been given to the recipient. Such interest shall be paid into the unemployment compensation administration account.

(6) The deduction from future benefits specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be limited to twenty-five percent (25%) of the benefit amount otherwise payable under this chapter unless the overpayment resulted from a backpay award, false statement, misrepresentation, or concealment of material information by a recipient of benefits. In these instances, the rate of deduction shall be one hundred percent (100%). The rate of deduction from benefits payable by another state or the United States of America shall be determined by the applicable state or federal statute.

Section 162. KRS 341.440 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The manner in which appeals are presented and hearings and appeals conducted shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the secretary for determining the rights of the parties, such hearings to be conducted in a summary manner. A complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with any appeal. All testimony at any hearing upon an appeal shall be recorded either stenographically or mechanically, but need not be transcribed unless further appealed. No examiner, referee or member of the commission shall participate in any hearing in which he is an interested party.

(2) Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to proceedings under KRS 341.420 and 341.430 shall be allowed fees in accordance with rates allowed by law. Such fees and all expenses of proceedings before the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ or commission involving disputed claims shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering this chapter.

(3) In the absence of an appeal therefrom, decisions of the commission shall become final twenty (20) days after the date they are made.

Section 163. KRS 341.470 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No agreement by a worker to waive, release, or commute his rights to benefits or any other rights under this chapter shall be valid. No agreement by any worker to pay any portion of a subject employer's contributions, required under this chapter from such subject employer, shall be valid. No subject employer shall directly or indirectly make or require or accept any deductions from wages to finance the subject employer's contributions required of him. In cases involving awards to a worker by an arbitrator, court, or other administrative body or mediator, the secretary may require the employer to withhold benefits paid under this chapter from the award and pay the amount withheld into the unemployment insurance trust fund. All subject employers are required to notify the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment~~[Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development]~~ prior to paying any back pay award.

(2) No worker claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in any proceeding under this chapter by the commission, the secretary, or his or her representatives. Any worker claiming benefits in any proceeding before a referee or the commission may represent himself or herself or may be represented by counsel or other agent duly authorized by such worker and shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in the proceeding without restriction; but no counsel or agent shall either charge or receive for such service more than an amount approved by the commission.

(3) (a) Any employer in any proceeding before a referee or the commission may represent himself or herself or may be represented by counsel or other agent duly authorized by such employer; and

(b) Any person appearing in any proceeding before a referee or the commission who is an officer of, or who regularly performs in a managerial capacity for, a corporation or partnership which is a party to the proceeding in which the appearance is made shall be permitted to represent such corporation or partnership and shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in the proceeding without restriction.

(4) No assignment, pledge, or encumbrance of any right to benefits due or payable under this chapter shall be valid; and such rights to benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, or any other remedy for the collection of debt. Benefits received by any worker, as long as they are not mingled with other funds of the recipient, shall be exempt from any remedy for the collection of all debts except debts incurred for necessaries furnished to such worker or his spouse or dependents during the time such worker was unemployed. No waiver of any exemption provided for in this subsection shall be valid.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to child support deductions made in accordance with KRS 341.392 and withholding for federal and state income tax in accordance with KRS 341.395.

Section 164. KRS 341.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ shall maintain a reserve account for each subject employer making contributions to the fund and a reimbursing employer account for each subject employer making payment in lieu of contributions, and shall, except as provided in KRS 341.590, credit to such account the total amount of all contributions or benefit reimbursement paid by the employer on his own behalf. Nothing in this section or elsewhere in this chapter shall be construed to grant any employer or individual who is or was in his employ prior claims or rights to the amounts paid by him into the fund.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, all regular benefits paid to an eligible worker in accordance with KRS 341.380 plus the extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) below, shall be charged against the reserve account or reimbursing employer account of his most recent employer. No employer shall be deemed to be the most recent employer unless the eligible worker to whom benefits are payable shall have worked for such employer in each of ten (10) weeks whether or not consecutive back to the beginning of the worker's base period.

(a) Subject employers, which are not governmental entities as defined in KRS 341.069, shall be charged one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740; and

(b) Subject employers which are governmental entities, as defined in KRS 341.069, shall be charged for all extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740 for compensable weeks occurring on or after January 1, 1979, and for one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid for compensable weeks occurring prior to such date.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, benefits paid to an eligible worker and chargeable to a contributing employer's reserve account under such subsection shall be charged against the pooled account if such worker was discharged by such employer for misconduct connected with his most recent work for such employer, voluntarily left his most recent work with such employer without good cause attributable to the employment, or the employer has continued to provide part-time employment and wages, without interruption, to the same extent that was provided from the date of hire, and the employer within a reasonable time, as prescribed by regulation of the secretary, notifies the office[~~department~~], in writing, of the alleged voluntary quitting, discharge for misconduct or continuing part-time employment; provided, however, that no employer making payments to the fund in lieu of contributions shall be relieved of charges by reason of this subsection.

(4) Each subject employer's reserve account or reimbursing account shall, unless terminated as of the computation date (as defined in subsection (5) of KRS 341.270), be charged with all benefits paid to eligible workers which are chargeable to such reserve account or reimbursing account under subsection (2) of this section. A subject employer's reserve account or reimbursing account shall be deemed to be terminated if he has ceased to be subject to this chapter, and his account has been closed and any balance remaining therein has been transferred to the fund's pooled account or to a successor's account as provided in KRS 341.540 or has been refunded if the employer is a reimbursing employer.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, two (2) or more nonprofit (Internal Revenue Code sec. 501(c)(3)) organizations may jointly request the secretary to establish a group reserve account or reimbursing account for such nonprofit organizations. Two (2) or more governmental entities may jointly request the secretary to establish a group reserve account or reimbursing account, and once established, such account shall remain in effect at least two (2) calendar years and thereafter until either dissolved at the discretion of the secretary or upon filing application for dissolution by the group members. Each member of a group shall be jointly and severally liable for all payments due under this chapter from each or all of such group members. The secretary shall prescribe such procedures as he deems necessary for the establishment, maintenance, and dissolution of a group reserve account or reimbursing account.

(6) Any subject contributing employer may at any time make voluntary payments to the fund, additional to the contributions required under KRS 341.260 and 341.270. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, contributions paid on or before the computation date and voluntary payments made within twenty (20) days following the mailing of notices of new rates shall be credited to an employer's reserve account as of the computation date, provided no voluntary payments shall be used in computing an employer's rate unless the payment is made prior to the expiration of one hundred and twenty (120) days after the beginning of the year for which the rate is effective. Voluntary contributions by any employer subject to a minimum rate as provided in KRS 341.270(2) or KRS 341.272(1) shall not exceed any negative balance they may have in their reserve account as of the computation date. Any employer who is delinquent in the payment of contributions, penalties, or interest as of the computation date shall be entitled to make voluntary payments only after the amount of the delinquency is paid in full.

Section 165. KRS 341.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employing unit which succeeds to or acquires the organization, trade, or business of a subject employer shall assume the resources and liabilities of the predecessor's reserve account, including interest, and shall continue the payment of all contributions and interest due under this chapter, except that the successor or acquirer shall not be required to assume the liability of any delinquent contributions and interest of a predecessor or predecessors unless the cabinet notifies the successor or acquirer of the delinquency within six (6) months after the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] has notice of the succession or acquisition.

(2) The liability for delinquent contributions and interest imposed upon the successor or acquirer by subsection (1) of this section shall be secondary to the liability of the predecessor or predecessors, and if the delinquency has been reduced to judgment, the order of execution on the judgment shall be as follows:

(a) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the predecessor or predecessors;

(b) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the business acquired; and

(c) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the successor or acquirer.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), any employing unit which succeeds to or acquires a segregable and identifiable portion of the organization, trade, or business from a subject employer, and who is, or by reason of the succession or acquisition becomes, a subject employer, shall assume the position of an employer with respect to the resources and liabilities of the reserve account in proportion to the percentage of the payroll or employees assignable to the transferred portion. In calculating the transferred portion, the secretary shall utilize the last four (4) calendar quarters, preceding the date of succession or acquisition, for workers employed by the successor subsequent to that date. The taxable payroll, benefit charges and the potential benefit charges shall likewise be assumed by the successors or acquirers in interest in a like proportion.

(4) (a) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit, whether in whole or in part, which was a subject employer prior to such succession or acquisition, shall not be affected by the transfer of the reserve account for the remainder of the rate year in which such succession or acquisition occurred.

(b) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit, either in whole or in part, which was not a subject employer prior to such succession or acquisition, shall be, for the calendar year in which such succession or acquisition occurred, the same rate as that of its predecessor.

(c) The contribution rate for a successor or acquirer employing unit, which was not a subject employer prior to the simultaneous succession to or acquisition of two (2) or more predecessor reserve accounts, either in whole or in part, shall be the rate determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.270, by combining the reserve accounts succeeded to or acquired as they existed as of the computation date for determining rates for the calendar year in which such succession or acquisition occurred.

(d) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit which succeeds to or acquires, either in whole or in part, a predecessor's reserve account after a computation date but prior to the beginning of the calendar year immediately following such computation date shall be the rate determined, in accordance with KRS 341.270, by effecting the transfer of such reserve account as of the computation date immediately preceding the date of such succession or acquisition.

Section 166. KRS 341.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employee of any state agency[~~department~~] who violates any of the provisions of KRS 341.110 to 341.230 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(2) Any person subpoenaed to appear and testify or produce evidence in an inquiry, investigation, or hearing conducted under this chapter who fails to obey the subpoena shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(3) Any subject employer, or officer or agent of a subject employer, who violates subsection (1) of KRS 341.470 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(4) Any person who violates subsection (2) of KRS 341.470 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(5) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation of a material fact or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to the secretary to obtain or increase any benefit under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state, or of the federal government, either for himself or for any other person, business entity, or organization shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless the value of the benefits procured or attempted to be procured is one hundred dollars ($100) or more, in which case he shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(6) (a) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any worker entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining subject to this chapter, or to avoid or reduce any payment required of an employing unit under this chapter shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless the liability avoided or attempted to be avoided is one hundred dollars ($100) or more, in which case he shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(b) Any person who willfully fails or refuses to furnish any reports required, or to produce or permit the inspection or copying of records required in this chapter shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor. Each such false statement, representation or failure and each day of failure or refusal shall constitute a separate offense.

(7) In any prosecution for the violation of subsection (5) or (6) of this section, it shall be a defense if the person relied on the advice of an employee or agent of the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~department~~].

(8) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation under it, the violation of which is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the terms of this chapter, and for which no specific penalty is prescribed in this chapter or in any other applicable statute, shall be guilty of a violation. Each day the violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 167. KRS 342.0011 is amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Injury" means any work-related traumatic event or series of traumatic events, including cumulative trauma, arising out of and in the course of employment which is the proximate cause producing a harmful change in the human organism evidenced by objective medical findings. "Injury" does not include the effects of the natural aging process, and does not include any communicable disease unless the risk of contracting the disease is increased by the nature of the employment. "Injury" when used generally, unless the context indicates otherwise, shall include an occupational disease and damage to a prosthetic appliance, but shall not include a psychological, psychiatric, or stress-related change in the human organism, unless it is a direct result of a physical injury.

(2) "Occupational disease" means a disease arising out of and in the course of the employment.

(3) An occupational disease as defined in this chapter shall be deemed to arise out of the employment if there is apparent to the rational mind, upon consideration of all the circumstances, a causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and the occupational disease, and which can be seen to have followed as a natural incident to the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment and which can be fairly traced to the employment as the proximate cause. The occupational disease shall be incidental to the character of the business and not independent of the relationship of employer and employee. An occupational disease need not have been foreseen or expected but, after its contraction, it must appear to be related to a risk connected with the employment and to have flowed from that source as a rational consequence.

(4) "Injurious exposure" shall mean that exposure to occupational hazard which would, independently of any other cause whatsoever, produce or cause the disease for which the claim is made.

(5) "Death" means death resulting from an injury or occupational disease.

(6) "Carrier" means any insurer, or legal representative thereof, authorized to insure the liability of employers under this chapter and includes a self-insurer.

(7) "Self-insurer" is an employer who has been authorized under the provisions of this chapter to carry his own liability on his employees covered by this chapter.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Workers' Claims in the Labor Cabinet.

(9) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the Department of Workers' Claims.

(10) "Board" means the Workers' Compensation Board.

(11) (a) "Temporary total disability" means the condition of an employee who has not reached maximum medical improvement from an injury and has not reached a level of improvement that would permit a return to employment;

(b) "Permanent partial disability" means the condition of an employee who, due to an injury, has a permanent disability rating but retains the ability to work; and

(c) "Permanent total disability" means the condition of an employee who, due to an injury, has a permanent disability rating and has a complete and permanent inability to perform any type of work as a result of an injury, except that total disability shall be irrebuttably presumed to exist for an injury that results in:

1. Total and permanent loss of sight in both eyes;
2. Loss of both feet at or above the ankle;
3. Loss of both hands at or above the wrist;
4. Loss of one (1) foot at or above the ankle and the loss of one (1) hand at or above the wrist;
5. Permanent and complete paralysis of both arms, both legs, or one (1) arm and one (1) leg;
6. Incurable insanity or imbecility; or
7. Total loss of hearing.

(12) "Income benefits" means payments made under the provisions of this chapter to the disabled worker or his dependents in case of death, excluding medical and related benefits.

(13) "Medical and related benefits" means payments made for medical, hospital, burial, and other services as provided in this chapter, other than income benefits.

(14) "Compensation" means all payments made under the provisions of this chapter representing the sum of income benefits and medical and related benefits.

(15) "Medical services" means medical, surgical, dental, hospital, nursing, and medical rehabilitation services, medicines, and fittings for artificial or prosthetic devices.

(16) "Person" means any individual, partnership, including a registered limited liability partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, firm, association, trust, joint venture, corporation, limited liability company, or legal representative thereof.

(17) "Wages" means, in addition to money payments for services rendered, the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging, fuel, or similar advantages received from the employer, and gratuities received in the course of employment from persons other than the employer as evidenced by the employee's federal and state tax returns.

(18) "Agriculture" means the operation of farm premises, including the planting, cultivation, producing, growing, harvesting, and preparation for market of agricultural or horticultural commodities thereon, the raising of livestock for food products and for racing purposes, and poultry thereon, and any work performed as an incident to or in conjunction with the farm operations. It shall not include the commercial processing, packing, drying, storing, or canning of such commodities for market, or making cheese or butter or other dairy products for market.

(19) "Beneficiary" means any person who is entitled to income benefits or medical and related benefits under this chapter.

(20) "United States," when used in a geographic sense, means the several states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, and the territories of the United States.

(21) "Alien" means a person who is not a citizen, a national, or a resident of the United States or Canada. Any person not a citizen or national of the United States who relinquishes or is about to relinquish his residence in the United States shall be regarded as an alien.

(22) "Insurance carrier" means every insurance carrier or insurance company authorized to do business in the Commonwealth writing workers' compensation insurance coverage and includes the Kentucky Employers Mutual Insurance Authority and every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of this chapter.

(23) (a) "Severance or processing of coal" means all activities performed in the Commonwealth at underground, auger, and surface mining sites; all activities performed at tipple or processing plants that clean, break, size, or treat coal; and all activities performed at coal loading facilities for trucks, railroads, and barges. Severance or processing of coal shall not include acts performed by a final consumer if the acts are performed at the site of final consumption.

(b) "Engaged in severance or processing of coal" shall include all individuals, partnerships, including registered limited liability partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations, joint ventures, associations, or any other business entity in the Commonwealth which has employees on its payroll who perform any of the acts stated in paragraph (a) of this subsection, regardless of whether the acts are performed as owner of the coal or on a contract or fee basis for the actual owner of the coal. A business entity engaged in the severance or processing of coal, including, but not limited to, administrative or selling functions, shall be considered wholly engaged in the severance or processing of coal for the purpose of this chapter. However, a business entity which is engaged in a separate business activity not related to coal, for which a separate premium charge is not made, shall be deemed to be engaged in the severance or processing of coal only to the extent that the number of employees engaged in the severance or processing of coal bears to the total number of employees. Any employee who is involved in the business of severing or processing of coal and business activities not related to coal shall be prorated based on the time involved in severance or processing of coal bears to his total time.

(24) "Premium" for every group of self-insurers means any and all assessments levied on its members by such group or contributed to it by the members thereof. For special fund assessment purposes, "premium" also includes any and all membership dues, fees, or other payments by members of the group to associations or other entities used for underwriting, claims handling, loss control, premium audit, actuarial, or other services associated with the maintenance or operation of the self-insurance group.

(25) (a) "Premiums received" for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means direct written premiums as reported in the annual statement to the Kentucky Department of Insurance by insurance companies, except that "premiums received" includes premiums charged off or deferred, and, on insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modification, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premiums received" includes the initial premium plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, and fees charged under the deductibles. The special fund assessment rates in effect for reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles shall be those percentages in effect on the effective date of the insurance policy. For policies covering leased employees as defined in KRS 342.615, "premiums received" means premiums calculated using the experience modification factor of each lessee as defined in KRS 342.615 for each leased employee for that portion of the payroll pertaining to the leased employee.

(b) "Direct written premium" for insurance companies means the gross premium written less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken but including policy and membership fees.

(c) "Premium," for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means all consideration, whether designated as premium or otherwise, for workers' compensation insurance paid to an insurance company or its representative, including, on insurance policies with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modifications, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premium" includes the initial consideration plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles.

(d) "Return premiums" for insurance companies means amounts returned to insureds due to endorsements, retrospective adjustments, cancellations, dividends, or errors.

(26) "Insurance policy" for an insurance company or group self-insurer means the term of insurance coverage commencing from the date coverage is extended, whether a new policy or a renewal, through its expiration, not to exceed the anniversary date of the renewal for the following year.

(27) "Self-insurance year" for a group self-insurer means the annual period of certification of the group created pursuant to KRS 342.350(4).

(28) "Premium" for each employer carrying his own risk pursuant to KRS 342.340(1) shall be the projected value of the employer's workers' compensation claims for the next calendar year as calculated by the commissioner using generally-accepted actuarial methods as follows:

(a) The base period shall be the earliest three (3) calendar years of the five (5) calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the calculation is made. The commissioner shall identify each claim of the employer which has an injury date or date of last injurious exposure to the cause of an occupational disease during each one (1) of the three (3) calendar years to be used as the base, and shall assign a value to each claim. The value shall be the total of the indemnity benefits paid to date and projected to be paid, adjusted to current benefit levels, plus the medical benefits paid to date and projected to be paid for the life of the claim, plus the cost of medical and vocational rehabilitation paid to date and projected to be paid. Adjustment to current benefit levels shall be done by multiplying the weekly indemnity benefit for each claim by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year for which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect during the year in which the injury or date of the last exposure occurred. The total value of the claims using the adjusted weekly benefit shall then be calculated by the commissioner. Values for claims in which awards have been made or settlements reached because of findings of permanent partial or permanent total disability shall be calculated using the mortality and interest discount assumptions used in the latest available statistical plan of the advisory rating organization defined in Subtitle 13 of KRS Chapter 304. The sum of all calculated values shall be computed for all claims in the base period.

(b) The commissioner shall obtain the annual payroll for each of the three (3) years in the base period for each employer carrying his own risk from records of the department and from the records of the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~], Education Cabinet[~~ for Workforce Development~~]. The commissioner shall multiply each of the three (3) years of payroll by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year in which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect in each of the years of the base period.

(c) The commissioner shall divide the total of the adjusted claim values for the three (3) year base period by the total adjusted payroll for the same three (3) year period. The value so calculated shall be multiplied by 1.25 and shall then be multiplied by the employer's most recent annualized payroll, calculated using records of the department and the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~] data which shall be made available for this purpose on a quarterly basis as reported, to obtain the premium for the next calendar year for assessment purposes under KRS 342.122.

(d) For November 1, 1987, through December 31, 1988, premium for each employer carrying his own risk shall be an amount calculated by the board pursuant to the provisions contained in this subsection and such premium shall be provided to each employer carrying his own risk and to the funding commission on or before January 1, 1988. Thereafter, the calculations set forth in this subsection shall be performed annually, at the time each employer applies or renews his application for certification to carry his own risk for the next twelve (12) month period and submits payroll and other data in support of the application. The employer and the funding commission shall be notified at the time of the certification or recertification of the premium calculated by the commissioner, which shall form the employer's basis for assessments pursuant to KRS 342.122 for the calendar year beginning on January 1 following the date of certification or recertification.

(e) If an employer having fewer than five (5) years of doing business in this state applies to carry his own risk and is so certified, his premium for the purposes of KRS 342.122 shall be based on the lesser number of years of experience as may be available including the two (2) most recent years if necessary to create a three (3) year base period. If the employer has less than two (2) years of operation in this state available for the premium calculation, then his premium shall be the greater of the value obtained by the calculation called for in this subsection or the amount of security required by the commissioner pursuant to KRS 342.340(1).

(f) If an employer is certified to carry his own risk after having previously insured the risk, his premium shall be calculated using values obtained from claims incurred while insured for as many of the years of the base period as may be necessary to create a full three (3) year base. After the employer is certified to carry his own risk and has paid all amounts due for assessments upon premiums paid while insured, he shall be assessed only upon the premium calculated under this subsection.

(g) "Premium" for each employer defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall be calculated as set forth in this subsection.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the premium of any employer authorized to carry its own risk for purposes of assessments due under this chapter shall be no less than thirty cents ($0.30) per one hundred dollars ($100) of the employer's most recent annualized payroll for employees covered by this chapter.

(29) "SIC code" as used in this chapter means the Standard Industrial Classification Code contained in the latest edition of the Standard Industrial Classification Manual published by the Federal Office of Management and Budget.

(30) "Investment interest" means any pecuniary or beneficial interest in a provider of medical services or treatment under this chapter, other than a provider in which that pecuniary or investment interest is obtained on terms equally available to the public through trading on a registered national securities exchange, such as the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System.

(31) "Managed health care system" means a health care system that employs gatekeeper providers, performs utilization review, and does medical bill audits.

(32) "Physician" means physicians and surgeons, psychologists, optometrists, dentists, podiatrists, and osteopathic and chiropractic practitioners acting within the scope of their license issued by the Commonwealth.

(33) "Objective medical findings" means information gained through direct observation and testing of the patient applying objective or standardized methods.

(34) "Work" means providing services to another in return for remuneration on a regular and sustained basis in a competitive economy.

(35) "Permanent impairment rating" means percentage of whole body impairment caused by the injury or occupational disease as determined by "Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment," American Medical Association, latest available edition.

(36) "Permanent disability rating" means the permanent impairment rating selected by an administrative law judge times the factor set forth in the table that appears at KRS 342.730(1)(b).

Section 168. KRS 342.122 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) For calendar year 1997 and for each calendar year thereafter, for the purpose of funding and prefunding the liabilities of the special fund, financing the administration and operation of the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission, and financing the expenditures for all programs in the Labor Cabinet, except the Division of Employment Standards, Apprenticeship and Training and the Office of Labor-Management Relations and Mediation, as reflected in the enacted budget of the Commonwealth and enacted by the General Assembly, the funding commission shall impose a special fund assessment rate of nine percent (9%) upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received on and after January 1, 1997, through December 31, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his or her own risk.

(b) The funding commission shall, for calendar year 1998 and thereafter, establish for the special fund an assessment rate to be assessed against all premium received during that calendar year which, when added to the coal severance tax appropriated to the special fund in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, shall produce enough revenue to amortize on a level basis the unfunded liability of the special fund as of September 1 preceding January 1 of each year, for the period remaining until December 31, 2018. The interest rate to be used in this calculation shall reflect the funding commission's investment experience to date and the current investment policies of the commission. This assessment shall be imposed upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

(c) In addition to the assessment imposed in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, and notwithstanding and prior to the transfer of funds to the Local Government Economic Assistance Program under KRS 42.450 to 42.495, the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet shall credit nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) in coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission each year beginning with fiscal year 1998 and all fiscal years thereafter. The annual transfer of nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) shall occur in four (4) equal quarterly payments. These transfers shall occur not later than the last day of each quarter of each calendar year and shall consist of four (4) equal payments of four million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,750,000).

(d) All assessments imposed by this section shall be paid to the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission and shall be credited to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission.

(e) The assessments imposed in this chapter shall be in lieu of all other assessments or taxes on workers' compensation premiums.

(2) These assessments shall be paid quarterly not later than the thirtieth day of the month following the end of the quarter in which the premium is received. Receipt shall be considered timely through actual physical receipt or by postmark of the United States Postal Service. Employers carrying their own risk and employers defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall pay the annual assessments in four (4) equal quarterly installments.

(3) The assessments imposed by this section may be collected by the insurance carrier from his insured. However, the insurance carrier shall not collect from the employer any amount exceeding the assessments imposed pursuant to this section. If the insurance carrier collects the assessment from an insured, the assessment shall be collected at the same time and in the same proportion as the premium is collected. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. Each statement from an insurance carrier presented to an insured reflecting premium and assessment amounts shall clearly identify and distinguish the amount to be paid for premium and the amount to be paid for assessments. No insurance carrier shall collect from an insured an amount in excess of the assessment percentages imposed by this chapter. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. The percentages imposed by this chapter for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company shall be those percentages in effect on the annual effective date of the policy, regardless of the date that the premium is actually received by the insurance company.

(4) A group self-insurance association may elect to report its premiums and to have its assessments computed in the same manner as insurance companies. This election may not be rescinded for at least ten (10) years, nor may this election be made a second time for at least another ten (10) years, except that the board of directors of the funding commission may, at its discretion, waive the ten (10) year ban on a case-by-case basis after formal petition has been made to the funding commission by a group self-insurance association.

(5) The funding commission, as part of the collection and auditing of the special fund assessments required by this section, shall annually require each insurance carrier and each group self-insurer to provide a list of employers which it has insured or which are members and the amount collected from each employer. Additionally, the funding commission shall require each entity paying a special fund assessment to report the SIC code for each employer and the amount of premium collected from each SIC code. An insurance carrier or group self-insurer may require its insureds or members to furnish the SIC code for each of their employees. However, the failure of any employer to furnish said codes shall not relieve the insurance carrier or group self-insurer from the obligation to furnish same to the funding commission. The Office of Employment and Training, Education Cabinet~~[Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development]~~ is hereby directed to make available the SIC codes assigned in its records to specific employers to aid in the reporting and recording of the special fund assessment data.

(6) Each self-insured employer, group self-insurer, or insurance carrier shall provide any information and submit any reports the Revenue Cabinet or the funding commission may require to effectuate the provisions of this section. In addition, the funding commission may enter reciprocal agreements with other governmental agencies for the exchange of information necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

(7) The special fund shall be required to maintain a central claim registry of all claims to which it is named a party, giving each such claim a unique claim number and thereafter recording the status of each claim on a current basis. The registry shall be established by January 26, 1988, for all claims on which payments were made since July 1, 1986, or which were pending adjudication since July 1, 1986, by audit of all claim files in the possession of the special fund.

(8) The fund heretofore designated as the subsequent claim fund is abolished, and there is substituted therefor the special fund as set out by this section, and all moneys and properties owned by the subsequent claim fund are transferred to the special fund.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or this chapter to the contrary, the total amount of funds collected pursuant to the assessment rates adopted by the funding commission shall not be limited to the provisions of this section.

(10) All assessment rates imposed for periods prior to January 1, 1997, under KRS 342.122 shall forever remain applicable to premiums received on policies with effective dates prior to January 1, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provision of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

Section 169. KRS 342.143 is amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, the average weekly wage of the state shall be determined by the commissioner as follows: On or before September 1 of each year, the total wages reported by subject employers under the Kentucky Unemployment Insurance Law for the preceding calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly number of insured workers (determined by dividing the total number of insured workers reported for the preceding year by twelve (12)). The average annual wage thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two (52) and the average weekly wage thus determined rounded to the nearest cent. The average weekly wage shall be certified to the commissioner by the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ in a manner prescribed by the commissioner by administrative regulation. The average weekly wage as so determined shall be applicable for the full period during which income or death benefits are payable, when the date of occurrence of injury or of disability in the case of disease, or of death, falls within the calendar year commencing January 1 following the September 1 determination. Whenever a change in the average weekly wage of the state is of such amount that the minimum weekly income benefits for total disability or for death are increased or decreased by one dollar ($1) or more, or the maximum weekly income benefits for total disability or for death are increased or decreased by two dollars ($2) or more, computed in each case and rounded to the nearest dollar, an adjustment in those minimums or maximums which are affected in the requisite amount by the change in the average weekly wage of the state shall be made which will reflect this increase or decrease, but no change in such limitations shall otherwise be made. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, KRS 342.140, 342.740, or any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the average weekly wage for calendar years 1995 and 1996 shall be determined to be no higher than the average weekly wage determined by the commissioner to be in effect in the calendar year of 1994. If the average weekly wage calculated by the commissioner is determined to be lower than the 1994 calendar year wage, the average weekly wage may be lowered as provided by this section. Beginning in calendar year 1997 and annually thereafter, the average weekly wage shall be calculated based upon the state average weekly wage in effect two (2) years prior to that calculation.

Section 170. KRS 342.710 is amended to read as follows:

(1) One of the primary purposes of this chapter shall be restoration of the injured employee to gainful employment, and preference shall be given to returning the employee to employment with the same employer or to the same or similar employment.

(2) The commissioner shall continuously study the problems of rehabilitation, both physical and vocational, and shall investigate and maintain a directory of all rehabilitation facilities, both private and public.

(3) An employee who has suffered an injury covered by this chapter shall be entitled to prompt medical rehabilitation services for whatever period of time is necessary to accomplish physical rehabilitation goals which are feasible, practical, and justifiable. When as a result of the injury he is unable to perform work for which he has previous training or experience, he shall be entitled to such vocational rehabilitation services, including retraining and job placement, as may be reasonably necessary to restore him to suitable employment. In all such instances, the administrative law judge shall inquire whether such services have been voluntarily offered and accepted. The administrative law judge on his own motion, or upon application of any party or carrier, after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, may refer the employee to a qualified physician or facility for evaluation of the practicability of, need for, and kind of service, treatment, or training necessary and appropriate to render him fit for a remunerative occupation. Upon receipt of such report, the administrative law judge may order that the services and treatment recommended in the report, or such other rehabilitation treatment or service likely to return the employee to suitable, gainful employment, be provided at the expense of the employer or his insurance carrier. Vocational rehabilitation training, treatment, or service shall not extend for a period of more than fifty-two (52) weeks, except in unusual cases when by special order of the administrative law judge, after hearing and upon a finding, determined by sound medical evidence which indicates such further rehabilitation is feasible, practical, and justifiable, the period may be extended for additional periods.

(4) Where rehabilitation requires residence at or near the facility or institution, away from the employee's customary residence, reasonable cost of his board, lodging, or travel shall be paid for by the employer or his insurance carrier.

(5) Refusal to accept rehabilitation pursuant to an order of an administrative law judge shall result in a fifty percent (50%) loss of compensation for each week of the period of refusal.

(6) The commissioner shall cooperate on a reciprocal basis with the Office~~[Department]~~ of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Office of~~[Department for]~~ Employment and Training~~[Services]~~ of the Education~~[Kentucky]~~ Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~. In the event medical treatment, medical rehabilitation services, or vocational rehabilitation services are purchased for an injured employee by the Office~~[Department]~~ of Vocational Rehabilitation or Office of~~[Department for]~~ Employment and Training~~[Services]~~ following the refusal by the employer or his insurance carrier to provide such services, the administrative law judge, after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, may order reimbursement of the cost of such treatment or services by the employer or his insurance carrier as apportioned in the award. This section shall not be interpreted to require mandatory evaluation of employees based on length of disability. Any administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to this section that require mandatory referral to a qualified rehabilitation counselor shall expire on April 4, 1994.

(7) An employee who is enrolled and participating in a program of rehabilitation training pursuant to this section may elect to receive an acceleration of benefits as awarded under KRS 342.730. Such acceleration shall be available to the employee during the period of retraining, but in no event shall be paid in a weekly amount greater than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the average weekly wage upon which the award is based, not to exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the state average weekly wage. Upon successful completion of the rehabilitation program, the total of all accelerated benefits paid shall be deducted on a dollar-for-dollar basis, without discount, from weekly benefits otherwise due the employee subject to the maximum amount of the award. Such remaining benefits, if any, shall then be divided by the number of weeks remaining payable under the award, and that amount shall be the weekly benefit due the employee. If a program of rehabilitation training is terminated by the employee prior to completion, all sums paid on an accelerated basis shall be discounted at the rate set forth in KRS 342.265 and then deducted on a dollar-for-dollar basis from weekly benefits otherwise due the employee subject to the maximum amount of the award. Such remaining benefits, after the discount, shall be divided by the number of weeks remaining payable under the award, and that amount shall be the weekly benefit due the employee. In no event shall this subsection be construed as requiring payment of benefits in excess of the total of those benefits which would otherwise be payable under the award.

Section 171. KRS 342.732 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, income benefits and retraining incentive benefits for occupational pneumoconiosis resulting from exposure to coal dust in the severance or processing of coal shall be paid as follows:

(a) 1. If an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1 or 1/2, coal workers' pneumoconiosis and spirometric test values of eighty percent (80%) or more, the employee shall be awarded a one (1) time only retraining incentive benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740, but not more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage, payable semimonthly for a period not to exceed one hundred four (104) weeks, except as provided in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph.

2. Except as provided in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph, these benefits shall be paid only while the employee is enrolled and actively and successfully participating as a full-time student taking the equivalent of twelve (12) or more credit hours per week in a bona fide training or education program that if successfully completed will qualify the person completing the course for a trade, occupation, or profession and which program can be completed within the period benefits are payable under this subsection. The program must be approved under administrative regulations to be promulgated by the commissioner. These benefits shall also be paid to an employee who is a part-time student taking not less than the equivalent of six (6) nor more than eleven (11) credit hours per week, except that benefits shall be an amount equal to thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740, but not more than thirty-seven and one-half percent (37-1/2%) of the state average weekly wage, payable biweekly for a period not to exceed two hundred eight (208) weeks.

3. These benefits shall also be paid biweekly while an employee is actively and successfully pursuing a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner. These benefits shall be paid in the amount of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage for a maximum period not to exceed seventeen (17) weeks. These income benefits shall be in addition to the maximum amount of retraining incentive benefits payable under this paragraph.

4. The employer shall also pay, directly to the institution conducting the training or education program, instruction, tuition, and material costs not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

5. The period of weeks during which this benefit is payable shall begin no later than the thirtieth day after the administrative law judge's order awarding the benefit becomes final, except that an employee may elect to defer the beginning of such benefits up to the three hundred sixty-fifth day following the thirtieth day the order becomes final. Unless the employee has requested deferral of income benefits, those income benefits payable under subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph shall begin no later than thirty (30) days following conclusion of income benefits paid under subparagraph 3. if such benefits were paid.

6. If an employee who is awarded retraining incentive benefits under this paragraph successfully completes a bona fide training or education program approved by the commissioner, upon completion of the training or education program, the employer shall pay to that employee the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for successful completion of a program that requires a course of study of not less than twelve (12) months nor more than eighteen (18) months, or the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for successful completion of a program that requires a course of study of more than eighteen (18) months. This amount shall be in addition to retraining incentive benefits awarded under this paragraph, and tuition expenses paid by the employer.

7. An employee who is age fifty-seven (57) years or older on the date of last exposure and who is awarded retraining incentive benefits under subparagraph 1. to 4. of this paragraph, may elect to receive in lieu of retraining incentive benefits, an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage, not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%) for a period not to exceed four hundred twenty-five (425) weeks, or until the employee reaches sixty-five (65) years of age, whichever occurs first, KRS 342.730(4) notwithstanding.

8. A claim for retraining incentive benefits provided under this section may be filed, but benefits shall not be payable, while an employee is employed in the severance or processing of coal as defined in KRS 342.0011(23).

9. If an employer appeals an award of retraining incentive benefits, upon an employee's motion, an administrative law judge may grant retraining incentive benefits pending appeal as interlocutory relief.

10. If an employee elects to defer payment of retraining incentive benefits for a period of retraining longer than three hundred sixty-five (365) days, benefits otherwise payable shall be reduced week-for-week for each week retraining benefits are further deferred.

(b) 1. If an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1, or 1/2 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment evidenced by spirometric test values of fifty-five percent (55%) or more but less than eighty percent (80%) of the predicted normal values, or category 2/1, 2/2, or 2/3 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and spirometric test values of eighty percent (80%) or more of the predicted normal values, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee has a disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%) resulting from exposure to coal dust, and the employee shall be awarded an income benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage, but not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%). The award shall be payable for a period not to exceed four hundred twenty-five (425) weeks.

2. An employee who is awarded benefits under this paragraph may, at the time of the award or before benefit payments begin, elect to receive retraining incentive benefits provided under subparagraphs 1. to 6. of paragraph (a) of this subsection, in lieu of income benefits awarded under this paragraph, provided that such option is available one (1) time only and is not revokable, and provided that in no event shall income benefits payable under this paragraph be stacked or added to retraining incentive income benefits paid or payable under subparagraphs 1. to 6. of paragraph (a) of this subsection to extend the period of disability.

(c) If it is determined that an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1, or 1/2, and respiratory impairment resulting from exposure to coal dust as evidenced by spirometric test values of less than fifty-five percent (55%) of the predicted normal values, or category 2/1, 2/2, or 2/3 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment evidenced by spirometric test values of fifty-five percent (55%) or more but less than eighty percent (80%) of the predicted normal values, or category 3/2 or 3/3 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and spirometric test values of eighty percent (80%) or more, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee has a disability rating of fifty percent (50%) resulting from exposure to coal dust, and the employee shall be awarded an income benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of fifty percent (50%). The award shall be payable for a period not to exceed four hundred twenty-five (425) weeks.

(d) If it is determined that an employee has a radiographic classification of category 2/1, 2/2, or 2/3 coal workers' pneumoconiosis, based on the latest ILO International Classification of Radiographics, and respiratory impairment as evidenced by spirometric test values of less than fifty-five percent (55%) of the predicted normal values or category 3/2 or 3/3 pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment evidenced by spirometric test values of fifty-five percent (55%) or more but less than eighty percent (80%) of the predicted normal values, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee has a seventy-five percent (75%) disability rating resulting from exposure to coal dust and the employee shall be awarded income benefits which shall be equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of seventy-five percent (75%). The award shall be payable for a period not to exceed five hundred twenty (520) weeks. Income benefits awarded under this paragraph shall be payable to the employee during the disability.

(e) If it is determined that an employee has radiographic classification of 3/2 or 3/3 occupational pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment evidenced by spirometric test values of less than fifty-five percent (55%) of the predicted normal values, or complicated pneumoconiosis (large opacities category A, B, or C progressive massive fibrosis), there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee is totally disabled resulting from exposure to coal dust, and the employee shall be awarded income benefits equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not more than one hundred percent (100%) of the state average weekly wage and not less than twenty percent (20%) of the average weekly wage of the state as determined by KRS 342.740. Income benefits awarded under this paragraph shall be payable to the employee during such disability.

(2) The presence of respiratory impairment resulting from exposure to coal dust shall be established by using the largest forced vital capacity (FVC) value or the largest forced expiratory volume in one second (FEV1) value determined from the totality of all such spirometric testing performed in compliance with accepted medical standards.

(3) When valid spirometric tests are not provided and a physician certifies to the administrative law judge that spirometric testing is not medically indicated because of the permanent physical condition of the employee, the administrative law judge shall make his decision on the basis of evidence admitted which establishes the existence of a diagnosis of occupational pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment due to the occupational pneumoconiosis. The evidence submitted by the employee shall include one (1) or more arterial blood gas studies performed in accordance with accepted medical standards. Income benefits shall not be awarded in the absence of valid spirometric tests if the claimant's PO2 arterial blood gas value is equal to or higher than one (1) standard deviation from the normal value obtained by the formula (103.5 - 0.42X), where X equals the claimant's age at the time of the arterial blood gas study.

(4) Upon request, the commissioner shall refer an employee who has been awarded retraining incentive benefits under subsection (1)(a) of this section to the Office~~[Department]~~ of Vocational Rehabilitation for evaluation and assessment of the training, education, or other services necessary to prepare the employee for a trade, occupation, or profession that will return the employee to remunerative employment, or services necessary and appropriate to prepare and enable the employee to successfully complete a bona fide training or education program approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall contract with the Office[~~Department~~] of Vocational Rehabilitation to provide vocational rehabilitation or education services commensurate with the skill levels and abilities of the employee. Services provided under this subsection shall be funded by the coal workers' pneumoconiosis fund, KRS 342.1242 notwithstanding.

(5) The commissioner shall promulgate administrative regulations sufficient to effectuate the provisions relating to retraining incentive benefits provided under subsection (1)(a) of this section. The administrative regulations shall:

(a) Define a "bona fide training or education program" to mean a postsecondary education or training program, including but not limited to the postsecondary programs registered with the Higher Education Assistance Authority, and successful completion of which will qualify the person completing the course for a trade, occupation, or profession, and which program can be completed within the period benefits are payable under subsection (1)(a) of this section;

(b) Establish requirements for approval and certification of a bona fide training or education program;

(c) Provide that funds paid to the training or education program by the employer as required under subsection (1)(a)4. of this section shall be applied only to instruction, tuition, material costs, and any fees necessary for the completion of the program;

(e) Establish attendance, performance and progress standards, and reporting requirements in consultation with the Department of Adult Education and Literacy as conditions that must be satisfied to receive retraining incentive income benefits pursuant to subsection (1)(a)3. of this section.
